

BOSTON . . . An operator's view from the cab of a 100-foot tower crane dramatizes new construction at world headquarters of the Christian Science Church. Some 10,000 members attended the denomination's annual meeting in Boston recently. Completion of the new Church Center by 1971 will provide a new administration building, new Sunday School building, expanded radio-television facilities, an underground garage, and a public exhibition hall. Church plans also include a plaza and reflecting pool. Extensive new building by private developers at the perimeter of the 15-acre Center will continue major renewal in Boston's Back Bay area.

Series of Bible Lectures Slated at Narbonne High

A four week series of Bible lectures will start Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Narbonne High School Auditorium, 24300 S. Western Ave., Harbor City. Meetings will be held every night except Monday and Thursday.

Indian Benefit Slated

Aid for America's most poverty-ridden citizens, who, ironically, were also first citizens, will be given by members of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Arcadia Ave., Saturday during 11 a.m. worship services.

The aid, explains Pastor David H. Pillor, will be for American Indians living in Arizona and Utah.

"Funds given at services on Saturday will be distributed through three mission operations of the Adventist Church — a remote clinic at Navajo Mountain, southern Utah; the church's Monument Valley Hospital and Mission, also located in southern Utah; and the Seventh-day Adventist Indian Mission School at Holbrook, Ariz.," Pastor Pillor said.

The local church will be joining with some 400 other Adventist congregations in California, Arizona, Utah, and Nevada in the special Indian of Bering.

"Reports from those who work directly with the Indian people in the two state areas of Arizona and Utah tell us that some of the worst poverty conditions imaginable exist," noted Pastor Pillor in announcing the special giving program of the local church.

"We hope that our local efforts, joined with those of sister congregations in the Southwest, will help change this appalling condition for many of the Indian people."

'Preserver, To Be Topic On Sunday

"God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of this week's Bible lesson-sermon which will be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

"The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever." This verse from II Timothy is the Golden Text.

A correlative passage, from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, explains: "The divine Mind that made man maintains His own image and likeness."

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 218th and Manuel Avenue, begin at 11 a.m., and all are welcome.

Jim Riede Will Enter Ministry

James L. Riede of Gardena has graduated from Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul, Minn., after four years of study for the ministry. Riede will spend two months in Europe this summer before returning to his home congregation, Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St., where he will be ordained.

Before entering the seminary, Riede attended California Lutheran Bible School, El Camino College, and UC Santa Barbara, where he graduated with a degree in history. He was active in student government.

Church Sets International Convention

The Church of God has announced speakers for 19 major public sessions of its 80th International Convention scheduled June 16 to 22 and expected to attract an anticipated 25,000 persons from around the world.

Dr. Charles Habib Malik, former foreign minister of Lebanon and past president of both the General Assembly and Security Council of the United Nations, speaks Monday at 8 p.m. Anderson College commencement, which traditionally opens the convention.

Bible School Dates Revealed

Lomita Missionary Church, 2043 Lomita Blvd., will conduct its Vacation Bible School June 23 through July 3. Theme will be "Let's Go With Christ."

Holly Shev Chosen For Mizvah Corps

Holly Shev, 18-year-old South High graduate, has been named assistant director of the 1969 Los Angeles Mizvah Corps. Sponsored by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the Mizvah Corps will bring together 20 teenagers from all over the country to work for six weeks on local youth projects.

Miss Shev was a member of the first Mizvah Corps in 1967 and is returning to provide "on the job" help for this year's volunteers.

Director of the Mizvah Corps is Lennard Thal, 27, a rabbinical student at the California School of Hebrew Union College. His wife Linda, 22, a UCLA Junior, will also take a leading role in the project.

Rabbi Erwin L. Herman, Pacific Southwest Council director of UAHC, said that the Mizvah Corps was recently renamed to honor Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath on his current 25th anniversary as UAHC president.

The high school boys and girls were selected for the Corps by the sponsoring Southern California Federation of Temple Youth, of which Lennard Thal is the youth advisor, and its affiliated National Federation.

Volunteers will work in local underprivileged areas with teacher aid and tutorial programs, Head Start, and teenage projects, day camp and recreational counseling, social work, and youth urban workshops.

Thal said the activities will be based on the Corpsman's interests and abilities, and will be designed to combine a neighborhood living experience with in-depth dialogues and communication of ideas on religious, moral, racial, social, political, and economic themes.

Before coming to the Hebrew Union College, Thal graduated religion at Princeton University and the Law School of The Hebrew word "mizvah" means "a good deed."

Dad's Day Service Takes New Twist

Services for Fathers Day will take on a new format at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St., on Sunday. Instead of the traditional sermon, the message of the day will be presented by three members of the congregation.

Kelsey Baughman, a senior at Long Beach State College, will discuss the father in today's world, as seen through the eyes of a youth.

Larry Bego, an 18 year veteran in juvenile police work for the Los Angeles Police Dept., will speak on the role of the father in the family unit in regards to responsibility, examples and teachings in a Christian manner.

Milton Sumner, president of the congregation, has chosen a modern theme for his speech, under the title of "Cool It Dad — You're Getting Through!" His message will deal with problems of communication between youth and parents, the reasons for and solutions to these problems.

Following these messages, the congregation will participate in a brief question and answer period.

In conclusion, Pastor Elmer Christiansen will briefly summarize the thoughts, problems, and solutions that were presented.

Church To Host Minister

The Rev. Ronald Brusius, instructor at Concordia College, Seward, Neb., will serve as "supply pastor" at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 706 Knob Hill, Redondo Beach, during the four-week period when the congregation's pastor, The Rev. E. M. Schoppa, will be attending classes at Concordia Theological Seminary in St. Louis, Mo.

Pastor Schoppa is attending the summer seminary session as a result of an arrangement made by the local congregation in recognition of his completing of ten years service in the ministry.

REV. BRUSIUS was at one time a member of the congregation served by Pastor Schoppa in Twentynine Palms, Calif. At that time Brusius was serving the Navy as a dental technician attached to the Marine Base located near the desert community.

The Brusius family was active in the congregational life of the Lutheran congregation located there. Brusius held various congregational offices including that of Sunday School superintendent. Mrs. Brusius served as office secretary and was active in the Lutheran Women's Missionary League.

DURING THE fall of '62, Brusius separated from the service and began studying for the ministry. He graduated from Concordia Seminary, Springfield, Ill., in 1968. Following his graduation he was assigned to the college in Nebraska.

Pastor and Mrs. Brusius have four daughters: Cathy, 15; Ronda, 12; Paula, 8; and Krista, 4. The Brusius family will live in the Schoppa home during their stay here. Pastor Brusius will begin serving Sunday and will conduct his last service here on July 6. In addition to conducting the Sunday services, Pastor Brusius will also conduct a four week Adult Bible Class series titled: The Church In The World.

Lutherans Graduate 17 Pupils

Ascension Lutheran's Christian Day School held commencement today. Three children of the 17-member eighth grade class became the first to go all the way from kindergarten through eighth grade at Ascension's school.

JULIE KING, Tim Warnek, and Robbie Winterstrom, three of a 1960 kindergarten class of seven, completed their primary education by speaking briefly at the graduation ceremony. Stephen Theil, vicar at Ascension, was the principal speaker of the evening. All three students shall be entering Walter A. Maier Memorial Lutheran High School in Los Angeles this autumn.

The Christian Day School at Ascension has grown dramatically. The 1960 kindergarten class was held in the building which now serves as the parish hall. In 1961, grades 1 to 4 were added and in 1962, grades 5 to 8 completed the primary grades.

A. G. AHLERS, Ascension's director of Christian education, was installed as principal in 1963. Significant capital improvements were added to the physical plant in 1964 and 1968. The present enrollment at Ascension's school is 150, presided over by a staff of eight. During the summer months Ascension will continue to offer Christian education through a vacation Bible school.

HOLLY SHEV

Graduation Scheduled At School

Harbor City Christian School will be holding its annual school graduations in the auditorium of Harbor City Fourth-grade Church under the direction of Miss Maybelle Snyder.

Kindergarten graduation will be held Monday at 7 p.m. Dr. Marion Plies, principal, will be speaker. Dressed in caps and gowns, 90 boys and girls will receive diplomas, promoting them to the first grade.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., 22 students will be graduating from the eighth grade. Special speaker will be Rev. Eldose Clarno, director of Foursquare Sunday Schools in the international office of The Foursquare Gospel, 1100 Glendale Blvd., Los Angeles.

Three students will be graduating from Harbor Christian High School Wednesday at 7 p.m. They are David Payne, Clayborn Turner, and Richard La Grotteria. Speaker will be the Rev. John Mack, vice principal of the high school.

Day care will continue throughout the entire summer. Summer school will be held July 7 through Aug. 15.
