

Star Studded Tennis Roundup June 22

Benefits Retarded Children's Foundation

Picking
Up
Pointers

Warming up for the Peninsula Racquet Roundup, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ellis take a few pointers on better play from Lynn Moss, tennis pro at the Hacienda Tennis Club. Preliminaries will be held this weekend and on Sunday, June 22, cup holders will be determined at festivities at the Ellis' private court in Rolling Hills.

PERRY

Perry School PTA announces its executive board of 1969-70. Mmes. Merel Marks, president; John Kunch, James Graham, Medes Davena, vice presidents; Fred Burkett, secretary; Frank Hadley, treasurer; Edythe Johnson, auditor; Don Rickabaugh, historian.

Over 250 Perry students were honored at the second annual Citizenship and Service Awards Ceremony held at the last association meeting. These students received the awards for rendering excellent service, contributed actively, creatively and unselfishly to the progress of the class and contributed in relation to both their own growth and that of the school. Mr. Lee Roy Steffey, principal called each child to the stage and Dr. F. A. Richardson and Mrs. F. P. Bellamano presented their certificates to them. The eighth graders were then honored for their eight years of perfect citizenship.

ARLINGTON

Mrs. Arthur Comorro installed the following officers of the Arlington PTA. Mmes. Carl Dalton, president; Lippman Wolfe, Henry Perkins, Ray Honstedt, Gene Cain and Mr. John Kasser, vice presidents; Mmes. Wayne Pearson, recording secretary; Dan Grifflie, corresponding secretary; Marvin Lubben, treasurer; Carmine Inferera, auditor;

Carl Wood, historian; Don Patterson, parliamentarian.

"Somewhere Over The Rainbow" has been chosen as the theme for the year 1969-70, announced newly installed president, Mrs. Carl Dalton.

EDISON

Installed at the May Association meeting of Edison PTA by Mrs. John Watkins were, Mmes. David Hagan, president; Denny Haas, Hazel Benson, Kenneth Kuykendall, vice presidents; Robert Manning, Ralph Mousseau, secretaries; Jack Jackson, treasurer; Lee Rock, auditor; Richard Quick, historian; George Fuller, parliamentarian.

CARL STEELE

Serving as officers for the year 1969-70 of Carl Steele PTA will be the following members Mmes. Thomas Lemley, president; Edgar Wambolt, Richard Deaton, Paul Hopper, Louie Tuccinardi, vice presidents; Norman Peterson, secretary; Paul Harrison, treasurer; Wayne DeBois, historian; Leroy Wentz, auditor; Thomas Everett, parliamentarian.

Preliminaries of the fourth annual Peninsula Racquet Roundup will be played this weekend, Saturday and Sunday, June 14 and 15, on 22 private courts with 280 entrants competing in five divisions.

Following elimination playoffs between court winners June 16-21 finalists will meet to determine cup holders in a star-studded day, Sunday, June 22, on the court of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ellis, 17 Eastfield Drive, Rolling Hills. Tennis greats and theatrical luminaries will play in exhibition following the play-offs which begin at 8 a.m. with the "D" division finalists. "C" division play-off is at 9:30 a.m., "B" at 11 a.m., "A" at 12:30 p.m., and Championship at 2 p.m. Hors d'oeuvres and beverages will be served at courtside in the garden during afternoon play.

☆☆☆

Among the television and motion picture celebrities invited to play are Jim Brown, Howard Duff, Richard Egan, James Franciscus, Janet Leigh, and Douglas McClure, according to Del Little, Kramer Club pro, who is arranging the exhibitions.

Tennis stars invited are Tony Trabert, former U.S. National Singles champion, Wimbledon champion, and Davis Cup winner; Ed Kauder, ranked No. 2 in the Southern California Junior Veteran's division; John Douglas, on the Davis Cup squad and former All-American football player from Stanford; and Mike Franks, former Davis Cup star.

Private courts for the Roundup have been donated by Messrs. and Mmes. Larry Ames, David Goodman, Stephen Hinchliffe, Peter Prince, C. R. Williams, and Boris S. Woolley, Palos Verdes Estates; Jack Cameron, John Fleitz, William Lutton, Dean Ninteman, Rolling Hills Estates; Donald Ellis, Russell Green Jr., Lloyd Olsen, Jerry Sass, George Scharffenberger, Gordon Shultz, City of Rolling Hills, Rolling Hills; Irving Ogner, Bel Air; Hacienda Tennis Club, San Pedro; Mrs. Kelvin Vanderlip and William Rule, Portuguese Bend; and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Tenn, Rolling Hills.

☆☆☆

Patrons, who sponsor the event to benefit the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation, are Messrs. and Mmes. Lawrence Adams, William Brown, Ross Chiles, Maurice Chrysler, Buddington Claire, S. Luke Curtis, Donald Ellis, J. Edward Foster, Jack Greene, Jack Kahlo, J. Kuhne, Jack Marsh, Don Miloe, Lynn Moss, Wayne Najarian, George Sioles, Don Sweet, Frank Washburn Jr.; Drs. and Mmes. James Broadwell, David Conrad, James Horton; Al Fierman, Howard Johnson; Dr. Warren Harvard Low; and Mmes. William Sloan and Charlot York.

☆☆☆

Women of the Children's Foundation will prepare the box lunches to be served courtside this weekend and will host the cocktail party at the finals.

Sunday Picnic in the Park

American Farewell For AFS Pupils

In a true American tradition, a picnic in the park, residents and foreign students, who have spent the past year here under the American Field Service program, will exchange farewells on Sunday, July 15.

☆☆☆

Scene of the picnic will be the south end of Alondra Park beginning at 11 a.m. and continuing until 4 p.m. The public is invited to attend the event.

The five students to be honored are Nora Pinon of Uruguay; Clara Thomas, from Colombia; Riki Cota of Italy; Amata Navamarat of Thailand; and Toos Van Boetzler, from The Netherlands.

☆☆☆

The AFS students, who have spent the past year living with Torrance families and attending Torrance high schools, will leave Torrance on June 22 for a month long tour of the United States before leaving for their native countries.

☆☆☆

Each person wishing to attend the picnic is asked to bring his own meat for barbecuing, table service, soft drinks, and a family size dessert and salad to share at the potluck table. Coffee will be furnished.

B&PW Club To Present Speaker

Kenneth D. Malloy, California State Division president of the Izaak Walton League of America, will be the guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club Monday evening, June 16. The 7:30 p.m. dinner meet will be held at the Indian Village Restaurant.

Mrs. Ambrose Palica, treasurer, chairman for the evening announces that Malloy will speak on water pollution problems in the area.

In the forestry service for many years, the speaker has been instrumental in establishing roadside rests along California highways and in developing fishing resources in the Salton Sea.

The public is invited to attend the dinner and program. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. O. D. Land, president, and Mrs. Ambrose Palica.

AAUW Unit Gives First Status Award

Mrs. Clark Wiedmann is the recipient of the first "Status of Women" award presented by the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Mrs. Wiedmann, a resident of Palos Verdes Peninsula, is a long time member of AAUW, a graduate of Mount Holyoke College.

The award marks the conclusion of her service of eight years as a member of the Palos Verdes Unified School District Board of which she became a member at the time of its unification.

This mother of four children is active in other organizations and civic affairs. With her husband and brother, she owns and heads several business enterprises.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JUNE 13, 1969

A-7

Community
To Say
Goodbye

That long string of American hot dogs, massive buns, soft drinks and open fires will never be forgotten by these foreign students who are having fun anticipating Sunday's picnic when the community will bid them farewell. Responding with goodbyes in their native languages will be, from left, Riki Cota of Italy, who will shower warm "arrivederci"; Clara Thomas of Colombia and Nora Pinon, Uruguay will say "adios"; Toos Van Boetzler, The Netherlands, will be using "goedendag"; and Amata Navamarat of Thailand will be saying "la-korn" to foster families and friends.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Presents 15th Scholarship

Neal Harvey, South High graduate, is the 15th recipient of the Las Vecinas Woman's Club's annual scholarship. The presentation is made by Mrs. M. Wallace Peterson, left, president, and Mrs. John Walti, scholarship chairman. This club has provided $16,000 in scholarships since the inception of its awards program in June 1955. To the Torrance community, it has added a doctor, an elementary teacher, a nurse specialist and an architect. Other students are pursuing their specialties in industry in surrounding areas. Beginning as $200 renewable scholarships, with the club proudly watching the students progress through four years of college, the scholarships have been raised periodically and are now $300 per year for four years. Funds for the awards are raised at the club's annual Pancake Breakfast and the Annual Fashion Show.

(Press-Herald Photo)