

Art Classes Set at Center

Children and teen art enthusiasts will be able to use their talent by joining one of the various art classes the Joslyn Center will be offering beginning Monday.

Three teen art classes will also be offered at the Joslyn Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd., for those 13 through 17 years old.

Teenage Art, a general art class is especially designed to introduce participants to different art activities. The fee for this class is $3.

Participants will meet twice a week on Monday and Wednesday or Tuesday and Thursday from 3 to 5 p.m.

In Teenage Ceramics, teens will handbuild with clay and learn the techniques of glazing and working with the potter's wheel.

The pottery class will cost $4 and will meet on Thursdays from 3 to 5 p.m.

Teens who want to learn the basic techniques involved in making handmade jewelry using the lost wax method of metal casting may enroll in Teenage Jewelry which meets on Tuesday from 3 to 5 p.m.

The cost of the material including wax and silver will average $3.50. The $1.50 registration fee does not include the cost of materials.

Arts of other lands, for children 6 to 12 years old will introduce youngsters to the customs of people of other lands through a program of music, games, dance and art.

Nature's wonders will introduce children to the mysteries and beauties of nature through clay, pastels, watercolors and other mixed art media.

There is a $3 registration fee for each of the classes which includes the use of materials.

Classes will be held twice a week on either Monday and Wednesday from 8:30 to 10 a.m. or Tuesday and Thursday from 10:30 a.m. to noon.

Registration for all programs is being taken at the Joslyn Center. For further information of any of the programs, contact Ralph Allen at the center.

Summer Sessions Begin Tomorrow

Preliminary estimates indicate that nearly 22,000 students will attend summer classes in Torrance schools, according to Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent. Included in this figure are 11,458 elementary school youngsters and 10,559 high school students.

The six-week summer school session will begin tomorrow and run through Wednesday, July 30. Classes will be offered at all elementary and high schools in the district. Students may register up to and including the first day of school.

Offered as a continuation of the regular year-round program, summer school will emphasize the academics. Academically talented seventh graders and all graduating eighth graders will be given the opportunity to take two high school courses from a selection of 23 offerings. High school students will have 139 courses to choose from.

Elementary schools will offer students a chance to study the regular courses more fully. Top students will be able to delve deeper into various subjects, while slower students will get help in subjects in which they need it, according to Dr. Lloyd Jones, assistant superintendent, elementary education.

Special classes in remedial reading and classes for academically talented and handicapped youngsters are also scheduled.

Enrollment in summer school is limited to students who live in Torrance. This includes students who attend private or parochial schools during the regular school year.

Chemistry Student Honored

Southern California Section of the American Chemical Society has announced that South High senior Frank E. Hanson has placed sixth in its 55th Annual High School Chemistry Contest.

A cash award of $100 was presented to Hanson for his high score which ranked between the 95th and 99th percentiles. In competition were 582 Southern California students representing 76 high schools.

Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hanson of 327 Paseo del Gracia, Redondo Beach. Hanson is a trustee on the Torrance Board of Education.

John Collins is Frank's chemistry instructor at South High.

Torrance Girl Wins Top Prize In Agriculture

Jeanine Walther, 18, daughter of Mrs. Lauretta Walther, 1300 W. 213th St., leaves Sunday on a five-day statewide tour of farmer-owned agribusiness firms.

Miss Walther won the Southwestern region competition against nearly 5,000 high school junior and senior students of vocational agriculture.

She graduated from Gardena High in January and will pursue a career in veterinary medicine at the University of California at Davis this fall.

SCHOOL BREAKFASTS

Breakfast-at-school programs are being tried out across the nation to reach low income children. Children are served orange juice, milk and cereal and 2,090 schools are involved.

Cavalcade To Offer Contests

Youngsters who attend the Cavalcade of Sports in the Great Western Exhibit Center can take part in contests and competitions designed just for them, according to Jim Scott, show producer.

Boys aged 8 to 16 will be invited to compete in baseball throwing and base running and football passing and punting tests. Each boy will participate with others in his own age bracket and winners will be awarded certificates. Winners in each age group will be invited to return and compete in the finals on Sunday, June 29.

NO ICE CREAM

One hundred and ten-year-old Richard Kimsey, Kansas City, received a congratulatory letter from President Nixon on his birthday. Kimsey said: "That's nice, where's the ice cream?"

Two courses each in journalism and photography are among the more than 250 courses which will be offered during the six-week summer session beginning June 25 at El Camino College.

Basic News Writing and Reporting (Journalism 1), a three-unit course, will be offered Monday through Friday from 10:30 to 11:50 a.m.

JOURNALISM and Society (Journalism 12), also a three-unit course, will be offered daily through the week from 9 to 10:20 a.m.

Both courses will be taught by W. A. Kamrath, journalism instructor and adviser to the ECC Warhoop.

In photography, something is offered for both the amateur photographer and the serious student of photography.

PHOTO 51, a two-unit course in elementary photography, satisfies the photography requirement for majors in journalism, art, police science, and industrial arts at El Camino.

The class will meet Wednesdays from 3:30 to 4:50 p.m. and Tuesdays from 3:30 to 4:20 p.m. Laboratory hours are Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 1 to 3:20 p.m.

PHOTOGRAPHY 1, Basic Photography, is primarily designed for students who wish to major in photography or who plan to continue with other advanced courses in photography.

The class will meet Mondays and Tuesdays from 8:30 to 10:20 p.m. and Wednesday from 8:30 to 9:20 p.m. Laboratory hours are Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 6 to 8:20 p.m.

Instructing the photo classes will be Merrill Jones, ECC photo-journalism instructor and adviser to the campus feature magazine, Warrior Life.

Registration for summer classes will be held June 23 and 24. Classes begin June 25. Further information regarding these and other classes as well as registration procedures is available in the admissions office at the college.
