

Club Puts New Year In Motion

'Laugh-in' was the theme for the Victor's Woman's Club Installation Banquet held at Sam's restaurant recently. The theme dominated decorations and program planned by Mmes William Dralle, Mitchell Lopin, Merle Smith and Norman Low. Assuming club leadership were, from left, Mmes Fred Fenger, president; Donald Tintle, first vice-president; John Muncy, second vice president; Kenneth Chew, corresponding secretary; Merle Smith, recording secretary; David Lundberg, social chairman, Robert Stark, membership; and Roger Engle, publicity. Two officers, not pictured, are Mmes James Bruno and Jack Cunningham. Mrs. Herbert Coe, retiring president, was presented a gift of appreciation from the club. This philanthropic group has devoted the past several years to equipping a neighborhood park. During the past year, the club donated $5,000 for a picnic shelter at Victor Park, which was dedicated in March. They have chosen the Southwest Association for the Mentally Retarded as their project for the coming year. (Press-Herald Photo)

Charles Outcalt Celebrate Silver Date

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Outcalt, 4207 W. 173rd St., were guests of honor at a reception at their home on Sunday afternoon, June 8, from 2 until 6 p.m. in celebration of their Silver Wedding Anniversary.

The party was given by the couple's children, a daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Freer and son; and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Outcalt and son.

Table decorations, made by Mrs. Merkel Short of Sacramento, consisted of a silver fountain with trailing roses, and a flying white dove holding a silver "25." The large floral arrangement was of white chrysanthemums, carnations leaves.

On the serving table was a silver and white three tiered anniversary cake, a gift from Mrs. A. J. Peverley and her two daughters, Misses Frances and Phyllis Peverley of Sacramento, who were also here for the party.

Assisting the hosts and hostesses in serving were Mrs. Joe Hardin and the Misses Peverley.

The honored couple received many gifts, cards and a silver money tree. During the party, they received telephone calls from Mr. Outcalt's sisters, Mmes. Aubrey McSay and Mrs. Gilbert Turner in Merino, Colo. Signing the guest book were 87 friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Outcalt were married June 8, 1914 in Sterling, Colo. They have lived in Torrance since 1955. Mr. Outcalt is a lieutenant in the Security Dept. at TRW. A retired navy lieutenant, he is a member of the Sterling Masonic Lodge 54 and the Torrance Eastern Star. Mrs. Outcalt is a member of the Arts and Crafts Club and the local Eastern Star.

Other family members present for the anniversary party were Mrs. Outcalt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merle J. Menges of Orange; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Menges, Joyce and Donnie, Sherman Oaks; and Mrs. June Milne, Gregg, Johnny and Christy, Whittier.

Coke Party For Senior Girls Set

Alumnae and collegiate members of the South Bay Panhellenic Council will honor area high school senior girls with an informal Coke Party on Sunday, June 22 at 2:30 p.m. at the Torrance YMCA, 2900 W. Sepulveda Blvd., Torrance.

There will be a panel discussion by collegiate members regarding the advantages of sorority membership and the role it plays on college campuses. A fashion show will follow in which the coeds will model fashions popular at their respective schools. Mrs. Sue Demetriou will be the commentator.

Mrs. James M. Moe of Manhattan Beach is serving as chairman for the party. Assisting are Mmes. Jerry Donahue, Palos Verdes Estates, invitations; Richard L. Kincaid, Palos Verdes Estates, files table; Arthur Dlott, Palos Verdes Peninsula, fashion show chairman; William Clarkson, Palos Verdes Peninsula, panel moderator; and John Van Camp, Rolling Hills, decorations.

Invitations have been mailed to senior coeds planning to attend four year colleges having National Panhellenic sororities. Any young woman not receiving an invitation is asked to contact Mrs. Jerry Donahue or Mrs. James M. Moe.

Twins Club Plans Joint Board Meet

A combined board and dinner meeting on June 23, at 8 p.m., will be the first official act of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club newly-installed president, Mrs. John Rand, Torrance, and her officers.

The dinner will be a potluck held at the home of Mrs. Gunther Gronwald of Manhattan Beach. The old and new board members will be present. At this time, Mrs. Rand will announce her chairmen for the ensuing term.

The main topic on the agenda will be the National Mothers of Twins Club Convention to be held in Philadelphia, Pa., July 16 through 19. Delegates representing the South Bay Chapter will be Mmes. Howard DeCastro and Thomas Webb, both from Torrance.

Also in the planning is the annual family picnic to be held July 13 at Holly Geln Park in Hawthorne. Mrs. Ronald Cross of Lomita is in charge of the event.
