Annual Youth Safety Run Ends Tomorrow

They Were Taught

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of four children who drain their parents for all they can get? Both the mother and father work. The aildren are 20, 17, 15, and 13. A lazier, more selfish and demanding collection of parasites would be hard to find.

Mother hasn't had a new outfit in three years. Her winter coat dates back to 1962. The 17-yearold girl dresses like Miss America. She had an Easter suit with real fur on the collars and cuffs. The 20-year-old boy conned his father into buying him a car (second hand but it still cost $800). Father rides public transportation but Junior had to have a convertible so he could get dates.

Their 15-year-old gave a party (30 kids) last weekend. Mom and Dad had orders to get the food ready and be out of the house by 6:30. They were told not to come back until 1 a.m. The reason I know is because they sat in our house and kept us up until then.

What do you think of these brats? We'd like to see your answer in print-Inky Inkwirer.

Dear Ink: Who raised this crop of vegetables anyway? People who plant onions shouldn't expect violets to bloom. Children are not born self-ish, demanding and lazy. They are brought up to be that way.

Dear Ann Landers: Please warn your readers that if they have a telephone which originates from a mobile unit their conversations are broadcast over the radio. Anyone who tunes in around 152 megacycles can get an earful.

I just listened to a woman from Saugatuck make a darned fool of herself. Every word she said (and she said plenty) could have been heard by about one-third of Michigan. The first thing she said was, "Is this line private" The guy she was talking to said, "Of course it is." (What a rat!)

So please warn these dumb bunnies, Ann. They need to know-Grand Rapids Fan.

Dear Grand: Thank you, I shall: Dear Dumb Bunnies. If you have a phone that originates from a mobile unit, write it, don't say it—unless of course you want to clue in the whole world.

And I've got a hot flash for you, Grand. It's a federal offense to intercept a telephone conversation and divulge the information to someone else.

> * 2º

12

Dear Ann Landers: When I was married six years ago my in-laws asked me to call them Mom and Pop but I just couldn't bring myself to do it.

My father-in law took sick three weeks ago. He died last week. I called him Pop during his last moments of consciousness. He smiled at me and squeezed my hand. I hated myself for not doing it years sooner

I called my mother-in-law "Mom" the very next day. It was easier than I thought. Please tell the daughters-in-law in your reading audience not to be so stubborn. I am ashamed of myself .--Missouri Mule

Dear Missouri: Humility is a rare virtue. It took a lot of it to write that letter. Thank you.

m romantic glances turn to warm embraces is it love or 77 Send for the booklet "Love or Sex and How to Tell the 60" by Ann Landers. Enclose a long, stamped, self-ad-envelope and 35 cents in coin with your request. Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Im to her in care of the Press-Herald, enclosing a stamped, reased envelope.

1337

-28

44.1

ON SAFETY RUN. . . Ceptain John Maestri, acting chief of police, discusses plans for the 1969 Youth Safety Run with teanagers from Torrance who are participating in the annual event. The group left from Riverside early Monday for a round-trip to Yosemite National Park. The group, which includes 120 boys in 40 new cars, is due to return to Riverside to-

Tomorrow Night Safety Run Awards Set

Nine Torrance teenagers are er: Guy DuFresne, 18, co-drivamong some 120 boys from er; and Greg Bradley, 16, ob-Southern California who will server. All are members of the Castelmen of Torrance. They complete the 16th annual are driving a 1969 Chevrolet furnished by Ted Green Chevrolet, Inc., and sponsored by the Torrance Mounted Po-lice. Youth Safety Run tomorrow in Riverside.

Sponsored by the Pulice Ad-visory Council for Car Clubs in cooperation with the Automo-bile Club of Southern Califor-nia and the Mobil Oil Corp., this year's run began Monday morning SOME 70 police officers, rep-resenting 20 police depart-ments, are with the boys on the trip. Torrance officiers trav-eling with the teenagers in-clude AI Jackson, Phil Joseph, Richard O'Brien, and John Spindler, who are serving as officials. Drivers are making the trip between Riverside and Yose-mite National Park this year.

The Awards Banquet is scheduled at 7:30 p.m. tomor-row at the 101 Ranch in Riv-erside

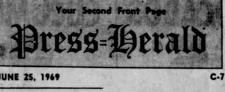

TORRANCE teenagers par-ticipating in the run include Michael Meehan, 18, driver; Joe Neece, 18, co-driver; and Rick Olson, 19, observer. Mem-bers of the Castelmen Car Club, they are driving a 1969 Mercury Comet furnished by Bill Hopkins Lincoln-Mercury and sponsored by Michael Kay Stores for Men. erside. Awards are based on top gasoline mileage in each class, with penalties being assessed for any traffic or run rules vio-lations Stores for Men. A second Torrance group in-cludes Daryl Redpath, 19, driv-er; Mike Mayes, 17, co-driver; and Ron Denos, 20, observer. The trio, members of Pharoahs Pacers Car Club, is traveling in a 1969 Ford Mustang fur-nished by Vell's-Parnelli Jones Ford and sponsored by the torrance Elks. The third Torrance group in-cludes Charles Steele, 18, driv-Chamber To Install Officers

New officers and directors of the Carson Chamber of Com-merce will be installed tomor-row at the Palms Restaurant, 1925 W. Carson St. Social hour begins at 6:30 p.m. with dinner at 7:30 p.m. New members of the board of directors are Paul Schnei-der, Sak Yamamoto, Bernard J. Donahue, James F. Hays, Stan Jacobsen, Art Squillace, and Earl B. Holiman. The new board met June 16

morrow. Torrance youths involved in the program include (from left) Mike Meehan, 18; Joe Neece, 16; Mike Mayes, 17; Ron Denos, 20; Chuck Steele, 18; Guy Dufresne, 18; and Greg Bradley, 16. An awards banquet will be held tomorrow evening in Riverside. (Press-Hereld Photo)

JUNE 25. 1969

Registration Set for Fall Term at ECC

Registration for new and re-tinuing part-time priority students. Both continuing full and part-time students must bring a priority registration permit and a spring 1969 grade slip to registration. Sequence of the registration will be by per-manent registration number, Christian indicated.

"Students may not register before their assigned date and

fice at the colleg

New students planning to school days prior to registraregister at El Camino College for the fall semester should obentering students planning to attend on a part-time basis has been set for Sept. 2, 3, 4 and 5. tain a reservation for a coun-seling appointment and testing now, according to Dr. Leo Christian, dean of admissions CONTINUING full-time pri-ority students who have a pri-ority registration permit ap-proved by a counselor during the past spring semester will register Aug. 26. August 27 has been set for registration of con-tinuing near-time priority stu-

at the college. "New applicants for admis-sion must make application to the admissions office at the college before Aug. 25 to be ac-cepted for the fall term," Christian said.

Counseling for new students Counseling for new students planning to attend full-time will begin Aug. 4. The coun-seling appointments will be made on a first-come-first-served basis with registration appointments made on the same basis when the individual counseling appointment has some basis when the hadrodan counseling appointment has been met. The college must have received an official tran-script from the student's pre-vious school before the as-signed counseling date.

REGISTRATION for new full-time students will begin Aug. 28, with Sept. 5 set as the final date for enrollment of qualified students.

before their assigned date and hour, but they may register anytime thereafter up to Sept. 5 which is the final day of reg-istration for anyone for the fall semester," Christian added. Further information regard-ing registration procedures or admission requirements is available in the admissions of-tice at the college

"New part-time students: "New part-time students must also have their tran-scripts sent to the college if they wish to work toward a de-gree or desire counseling. Reg-istration and placement test reservations are available now in the college admissions of-fice. Placement tests, if re-quired, must be completed five Cash Missing Amigos Restaurant, 21210 Hawthorne Blvd., was burglar-ized sometime late Thursday or early Friday. Missing was $2,500 in cash. Police said a window had been smashed. Profile: Lynne Alessio

Her Journey to Africa Is a Dream Come True go unless she was sure there was a plano over there for her to practice on. "I don't think I could live a year without mu-sic," Lynne exclaimes. En-dowed with a natural ear for music, Lynne has taught her-self to play many popular tanes on the plano. She is also accomplished on the gui-tar and accordion.

Lynne Alessio is afloat on daydreams. Visions of twilight safaris, of spicy grove and cin-nomon tree. Of placid rivers where crocodiles sniff caswhere crocodiles sniff cas-cades of jungle orchids. Of high-flown adventure in exotic foreign capitals.

toreign capitals. Ever since a fourth grade ge-imagination, Lynne Alessio has nurtured her dream of an Afri-can odyssey filled with ro-mance and intrigue. A fascina-tion for the dark continent may be commonplace among fourth grade geography students, but more mundane interests. Not so for Lynne Alessio. The fourth grader has long since blossomed into a bubbly teenager, endowed with a per-sonality to match her red hair. But one thing is the same: that dream about Africa!

LYNNE ALESSIO teenager, endowed with a per-sonality to match her red hair. But one thing is the same: that dream about Africa! And the time she's spent reading literally "stacks" of books about Africa in the past tew years hasn't been wasted. On July 2, she'll be taking off for a one-year stint in Sierra Leone, a tiny nation on Af-rica's west coast. And hopful-ly. Sierra Leone will be a springboard for jaunts to Nai-robi, Cairo, and the veld. The realization of Lynne's dream began last December when her dad, Oreste G. Alessio, arrived home and asked, "How would you like to Arriving home in June, 1970, Lynne hopes to continue her education at UC Irvine or pos-sibly Northwestern University. She'il major in journalism. "It excites me," she says, "I love writing."

In short, Lynne says, she'll have time to work on all the projects she hasn't gotten around to during the school year at home! Best of all, Lyrme will be able to read without deadlines and book re-ports hanging over her head!

But in spite of all the ex-citement and new experineces, 12 months on the dark conti-nent will probably be enough. "After a year, I'm sure I'll be ready to come back!" Lynne cuins

Lynne served as feature editor of her high school paper, the Sword and Shield, and won second place in the news writ-ing division at El Camino Col-lege journalism day.

On the creative side, L also helped staff the schoo erary magazine, contribu-stories and poetry. Rej Press-Herald readers hav doubtedly seen Lynne's b on her South High col which has appeared regu for the past year and a hal Other school activities Other school activities in-cluded Athena service club, Girls' League, and German Club. In between activities and studies, Lynne also found time to work as a checker at a local cafeteria. cafeteria. Lynne didn't neglect her aca-demic life, either. Upon gradu-ation, she was awarded a Cali-fornia State scholarship. A robust, athletic build gives away Lynne's avid interest in sports. Tennis is her favorite, but she also confesses an in-clination for climbing trees! Her year in Africa will probmischief a good part of the time. The future journalist also plans to spend a great deal of time writing. She will try to finish the Afghan she's been crocheting and also plans to take up cake decorating. As much as she loves the idea of traveling to Africa, Lynne said she would refuse to Her year in Africa will prob-ably provide her with ample opportunity to pursue the latter hobby!

Three armed robberies were reported to Torrance police Sunday, with total loss esti-mated at $370 cash and $35 worth of narcotics.

worth of narcoucs. In the first robbery, Shakey's Pizza, 5101 Torrance Bivd., was hit for $120. Attendants on duty told police a man about 24 entered the pizza parlor about 12:25 p.m. and ordered a pizza and a soft drink. When the sus-pect was confronted with the bill, he pulled a gun and demanded the cash from the cash register.

WHEN HE had pocketed the money in the register, he or-dered the two clerks to show him the floor safe, police said, but he found there was no mon-ey in it. The suspect fled in a gray and black car occupied by two other persons.

The suspect was described as a Negro wearing a brown jacket with a white fur collar. . . .

IN A SECOND robbery, two men in their 20s held up Alondra Drugs, 16908 S. Prairie Ave., neeting $150 cash and about $35 worth of dangerous drugs

Police investigation revealed that the men entered the store about 5 p.m. One of them an-

Armed Holdups

GOOD DRIVERS . . . South High juniors Terese Fitzpatrick (center) and Debra M. Moore receive plaques and certificates from the Southern California Auto-mobile Club for having completed driver training and receiving perfect scores on the state road test. Chuck Davis, District Safety consultant for AAA, makes the presentation. Since 1964, only 159 such performance awards have been given. Terese is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick of Torrance and Debra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore of Redondo Beach.

to elect the following new offi-cers for the 1969-70 year: Jack E. Jerrils, president; John D. Calas, first vice president; and Earl B. Holiman, second vice Trio Wins Chapman Degrees

Three are a residents re-ceived Bachelor of Arts de-grees from Chapman College in graduation exercises on that campus Sunday. They are Donald James Al-ten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allen, 347 Avenue E. Redondo Beach. Psychology; Ronald Robert Grebel, 22817 Nadine Chr., Sociology; and Kathleen Marie McGrady, 15232 Casi-mir, Gardena, History.

"The first suspect pulled a gun, ordering two women clerks to hand over the money in the cash register, while the secons suspect selected narcot-ics from the drug shelves. The suspect carrying the gun was described as a balding man in his late 20s wearing a blue jacket. The second sus-pect had brown hair and was unshaven. . . . IN A THIRD holdup, a Mexi-can-American suspect about 30 escaped with $100 from Stop and Go Market at 3822 Lomita Blvd. The suspect entered the store about 10:15 p.m., pulled a blue steel revolver, and or-dered the clerk to put the con-tents of the cash register in a sack.

The suspect wore jeans and a blue and white checked shirt.

Alessio, arrived home and asked, "How would you like to go to Africa?" Lynne couldn't believe her ears. Eager for the deatils, she learned that her father's com-pany, Pittsburgh Plate Glass, had offered him a job manag-ing the company's plant in Mo-bimbi, a hamlet 150 miles fram the capital city of Freetown. Since Lynne knew she would be graduating in June from South High, she decided it would be her chance of a life-time to visit the Africa of her dreams. time to visit the Africa of her drams. Life in Mobimbi should be a complete switch from the hec-type switch from the hec-switch from the hec-from the hec-switch from thec-from the hec-switch from the hec-switch fr

the onset of the rainy season. It may rain every day for the next two months. And of course it's broiling hot all year out and the system of the system casual clothes. "The really a slob at heart!" Lynne joshes as she expresses her prefer-ence for the T-shirt and cut-off scene! Keeping busy in a town where there are only 30 while families (and practically no-body your own age) might be a problem for some, but not for Lynne A le ssio. Two corre-spondence courses from UC Berkeley will keep her out of mischle a good part of the time.