Civic Symphony's 'Faust'

He's Sick, Too

Dear Ann Landers: The letter signed Sick Of Sex And Hungry For Love could have been written by my wife. I'm sure she didn't write it, however, because she wouldn't expend the energy.

After our third child was born, she said, "Why can't we just kiss and let it go at that?" How do you like that for a 35year-old, woman?

Whenever I get amorous she says, "All right, hurry up and satisfy your animal passions and get it over with." She should be glad that I am at least satisfying my animal passions at home. If it weren't for our wonderful kids I would have left my wife long ago.

I've agreed to go with her to a clergyman, a psychiatrist, or a marriage coun-selor but she says, "Men always stick to-gether. I couldn't win."

l marry if decides to d Barbara

ed in the mutual to know chutzpah an on the ilar crash ks Tunnel a truck, s that at s parked ntered one etcars via nped their or, claim-ured! Get

All that tocockfight (Producer arrested) that Gov.

staged a g room of se Avenue owler and the 1920 ion in San and Baer tu "no actumy Jim . . . Head-Longshore veils 'Sex-Boys in the Stephanie tt miss the nce Maga-

an article Sex Ed2-Chloroe" If your e, buffing ing, you're rong stuff.

siness and n unusual has urged the counrograms in ner safety, t it this consumers re affluent re at any Yet, these re increasmany asman marketmal econoadmission from reed from rged from Commerce They were free enter-nsumer ad-ng to take n Nader is in the ciga-er. There's deration of amation of ganizations headed by Ewan, eco-

at Boston

rig sprung rear, Santa was prob-st unlikely try to look consumer g against nent. How-d how.

I don't need advice. It's too late for that. I'm just writing to prove there are two sides to every coin. Perhaps I should sign MY letter, "Sick Of Sex And Hungry For Love." Men need to feel wanted and needed, too.—BATTING ZERO.

Dear Bat: A wife who wants to "kiss and let it go at that" hands her husband an engraved invitation to go elsewhere. My condolences to you, Sir, and to her, my best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 14-year-old girl who has been reading your column ever since I was 11. My mother doesn't think your column is fit for anyone who is not married. Mom always gets the paper first. When she comes across something she doesn't want me to see she tears it out. Whenever I see a hole in the paper I call up my girl friend and ask her to bring your column to school so I can see what Mom is hiding. It's always about sex.

My question is this: Can a 16-year-old boy make a 14-year-old girl pregnant if she keeps all her clothes on? - MISS

Dear Miss: The answer to your question is yes. And I hope you will ask your school counselor or a favorite teacher to answer any other questions which might occur to you. (P.S. If you've been reading my column regularly, Toots, how come you haven't been paying attention to my

Dear Ann: No problems I can't handle, but I do have a suggestion that could save a life.

People who live in climates where the snow piles up and the temperature drops below zero would be wise to keep a couple large candles in the glove com-partment of the car. If the car stalls, these lighted candles would throw off enough heat to prevent a person from freezing. Also, the lights would attract the attention of a passing motorist.—GREENVILLE.

Dear Greenville: Thanks for the tip. Especially for my readers in Canada, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Dakota, Nebraska, and Illinois. Baby, it's cold outside.

Confidential to Me And My Big Mouth: The next time you are behind the back of a friend, try patting it.

Is alcoholism a disease? How can the alcoholic be treated? Is there a cure? Read the booklet "Alcoholism —Hope and Help," by Ann Landers. Enclose 35 cents

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Press-Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (c) 1969. Publishers—Hall Syndicate

County Sets Craft Day in Torrance

Flowers will be created by volunteer leaders who attend the county-sponsored workshop Friday, March 28, at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance

The art of making floral decorations from salt and flour, paper, yarn, fabrics, and other materials will be taught in the Volunteer Leaders Workshop by arts and crafts specialists of the County Department Parks and Recreation, according to Supervisor Burton W. Chase.

The workshop will be held from 9 a.m.

FATHER AND SON NIGHT... Torrance High School's wrestling team will entertain at the Father and Sons Night at Adams School on Wednesday evening, March 19, at 7:30 p.m. Cecil Paschall, principal, and PTA program chairman, has arranged an evening of sports. Looking forward to the program, two 13-yeer-olds, Ronald Wilson, top, and Rick Yancy do a bit of arm wrestling as Principal Paschall and Paul Schneider, a school father, look on.

Disneyland Is Target For Student Activists

tion Group is engaging in a unique type of student activism today.

They have descended on Dis-neyland.

neyland.

Their objective is not militant, however; it is philanthrop-

Accompanying them are 32 youngsters from the Robert Kennedy Head Start Center in San Pedro.

COMPRISED of 40 students from Casimir Elementary School, the Student Action

"Saturday Seminars" are coming to Torrance High! This new program was designed for talented students to explore ex-

Last year, West High formed the program and had a great deai of success. The Board of Education has since then ap-proved the project for any school interested.

Approximately 140 students received invitations for "Saturday Seminars." Selections were based on the results of various tests conducted by the coun-seling office. However, it is strictly voluntary for the stu-dents and teachers participat-

THE TEACHERS will serve as advisers but the students will do all the planning and work. Presently the teachers involved are Miss Jane Hoose, Woody Griggs, Charles Pillet, and Nich-olas Furjanick. "Saturday Seminars" will olas Furjanick.

"Saturday Seminars" will give students a chance to discuss and learn more about subjects which interest them. Students have decided on "communication" as the main theme of the program. They went further and divided the theme into four categores: technology, visual, communication between races, and biological communication.

The visual part, adviser Miss tra interests.

decided when it organized last fall to expend its energies in ac-tive constructive channels.

For several months members spent their spare time raising money. They sold candy, washed cars, and put on a movie so that they could do something for the Head Start youngsters.

Deciding what to do was more of a problem than raising the money. The students knew they wanted to do something that wasn't material. Instead, they wanted to give the Head Start wanted to give the Head Start children an "experience" rather than a "thing." Finally, the idea

Hoose, is planning to write, pro-duce, direct, act, and film a

TO PROMOTE relations be-tween races, plans are under way to invite students from Compton High to Torrance and hold a discussion on race prob-FURJANICK took some students aboard the Valero IV, which is an oceanographic research vessel on which USC conducts experiments. To study tide pool life another trip to Gienada Bay is scheduled.

Continuation of "Saturday

Continuation of "Saturday Seminars" next year will de-pend upon the success of the program this year.

So far only a few Saturday session have been held.

Tartar Teen Talk

By Betsy Tomita

of a day at Disneyland occurred

WHEN THEY learned that there would be no school today because their teachers would be yisiting local business firms as part of the school district's Busin e s s-Industry-Education Day, that clinched it.

Adult chaperones were lined up, buses hired, and plans firmed.

Thirty-two chattering young-sters arrived at Casimir School at 8 this morning where the 40 "activists" were waiting to "do their thing."

JOINING the youngsters for the all-day outing were Mrs. Shirley Vansel, teacher; Mrs. Donna Clavier, teacher; Mrs. Margie Bussey, teacher's aide, Mrs. Juanita Mendez, teacher's aide, Mrs. Thomas Bezdeka, SAG advisor, and Mrs. Jack Davitian, president of Casimir PTA.

When it's all over, nobody will have anything to show for the months of work. But 32 tots will have a memory to last them a Field trips will serve as an important part of "Saturday Seminars." Recently, students visited Channel 28. By witnessing a TV interview show with guests Henry Fonda, Jonathan Winters, and Mickey Rooney, they learned of the many facets of the TV industry. Barristers Will Honor Chief Clerk

The South Bay Bar Association has planned a retirement dinner for Phil Benjamin, chief clerk of the South Bay Municipal Court, on March 28 at the Plush Horse Restaurant.

Reservations for the affair should be sent to Jody Clarks, ticket chairman, 825 Maple Ave.

A no-host cocktail hour has been scheduled for 6:30 p.m., followed by the dinner at 8 p.m.
Reservations are limited to the first 250 and tickets will not be sold at the door.

Rated Good Performance By VERA MILLS Last Friday evening at Mira Costa Auditorium the grand opera "Faust" was played to an audience which musicianship dramatic and voc-al artistry which have become the hallmarks of his appear-ances. Particularly admired era "Faust" was played to an enthusiastic audience which filled that huge hall to capacity. It was presented by the South Bay-Torrance Symphony Orchestra and conducted by Elyse Aehle.

Surely many of those present must have wondered, as I did, at the momentous task accomplished by this small, goldenhaired women. It was she who chose the opera, the soloists, the chose the opera, the soloists, the ballet, the choruses — in fact everything, and she selected and trained the orchestra. She kept trained the orcnestra. She kepi the beautiful flow of melody throughout the long evening and her artistry inspired the many moments of surpassing beauty which made the evening unforgettable.

Evelyn Wald was, as usual, the beloved of the audience and she deserved their adulation. A truly great artist, her role as Marguerite was beautifully sung, and enacted with sincere-

RAPHAEL Enriquez' unusually beautiful tenor voice and hands ome appearance gave glamour to the title role of Faust. He sang the famous arias very well indeed.

Charles David as Mephistopheles displayed a fine bass voice, a fine interpretation of the mischievous role, and a fine disregard for the orchestra and ensemble.

Enrico Porta again exhibited was his interpretation of "Vawas his inter-

AS MARTHE, Jo Ann Camody of Palos Verdes was new to the audience. She posses a fine voice and charming personality. Although understandably some-what uncertain near the end of her part, we are hoping to hear more of her.

One of the greatest and most admired performances of the admired performances of the evening was the singing of the Torrance High School choruses. What a treat nowadays to see a group of more than 80 young students practicing together day after day working hard to present beautiful music (of the highest quality and difficulty)!

and doing it magnificently well and in French!

The one who inspired and trained them was David Norman, teacher of choruses at Torrance High School. It is impossible to fully express how great. sible to fully express how great is our admiration for what he is our admiration for what he accomplished. The young soloist, Richard Nielsen, who sang the part of Wagner with charm and musical understanding, and the young organist, Aguilla Queaiot, who helped to produce the magnificent climax at the end of the opera, were both members of this group.

ONE OF the highlights of the evening and one very pleasing

Emphasis will be given to the use of charts in stock market trading. Included will be rever-sal patterns, consolidation for-mations, gaps, support and re-sistance, trendline and chan-nels, and major trends.

Also covered in the advanced course will be: a study of 55 day-to-day training indicators, the Dow Theory, the technical approach, signs of a bull market or bear swing, and selling rules.

"TICK" ACTION and tape reading, money control, what to buy and when to act, shorting and use of margin, and a study of trading terms and expressions also are planned.

Interested persons may register at the first meeting of class.
Instructor for both courses will be Donald K. Speirs, stock market consultant and broker of Hayden, Stone, Inc.

cable performance of the South Coast Ballet, Artistic Director Jan Darian. They were beau-tiful, charming and well trained. Anthony Lanyon, choreographer and guest artist was a brilliant sight, flashing, like a whirling comet, in and out with amazing bursts of speed and technique.

Another highlight of entrance ing lyric artistry was the violin solo played by Concert-mistress Paula Gwinn in the first aria in the second act. Her exquisite tone was heard throughout the evening leading the orchestra which, even though reduced in size for the opera, was more than powerful enough for all the

The lovely thread of melody spun by the orchestra through the whole opera held the listen-ers enthralled in spite of such ers enthralled in spite of such annoyances as poor lighting and an uncontrolled curtain which rudely closed before the orchestra finished on two occasions, one of them at the end when it ne arly wrecked the magnificently powerful finale by the choruses, orchestra, and organ.

Students Adopt Rosario

The Associated Students of El Camino College have "adopted" an 11-year-old Filipino girl through Foster Parents Plan, Inc., 352 Park Ave. South, New

The little girl, Rosario T. Bautista, lives with her family in the worst slums of Tondo, in Manila. Since the father died a few years ago, Rosario's mother and brothers have been living in cramped, impoverished quar-ters with friends. Her mother earns $10 per month as a kitch en maid.

The Associated Students are paying $16 a month to provide Rosario with clothing, household goods, primary education, and a monthly cash grant. Her family receives guidance and coun-seling from the North American director and a staff of trained director and a staff of trained local case workers. Medical and dental care will also be provided, if needed.

Foster parents receive a photo of their adopted child as well as a detailed case history, telling the youngster's background and needs. Parents and children exchange monthly letters. Parents are also permitted to send packages of food, clothing, and other necessities to their adoptive youngsters.

youngsters.

Rosario replaces another financially needy child adopted some years ago by the Associated Students who no longer needs help from Plan, Inc.

There are many other young-

needs help from Plan, Inc.

There are many other youngsters like Rosario in various parts of the world awaiting help from adoptive parents. Any group or individual interested in the program may write to Plan, Inc.

Classes in Stock Market Scheduled A sixweek introductory course in the stock market and Emphasis will be on how the Stock Exchange functions, mutual funds, and the what, how and when of buying and selling securities, including use of charting techniques.

a six-week advanced stock market and a six-week advanced stock mar-ket course will be offered by the adult education division of Tor-rance Unified School District at South High School beginning next week. MEETING on Mondays from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in Room R-2 beginning March 17, the advanced course is designed to analyze daily market action of stocks and the factors influencing price mayagement.

next week.

The introductory course, which will be taught on Thursdays from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in Room R-2 beginning March 20, will deal with the mechanics of the stock market and methods of choosing securities to meet specific investment objectives.

Narcotic Suspects Arrested

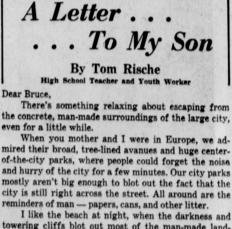

A routine traffic stop led Tor-rance police to make two drug arrests Wednesday evening. Arrested at the corner of El Arrested at the corner of El Prado and Cravens Avenues were Steve Wadhams, 26, of 520 S. Irena St., Redondo Beach, and his passenger Garvin W. Jackson, 28, 802 Cota Ave. Wadhams was charged with driving under the influence of an intoxicant (misdemeanor), and possession of dangerous drugs, marijuana, and a firearm (all felony).

marjuans, felony).

Jackson was booked for being under the influence of an intoxicant and sporting fresh needle marks on his arm.

Police confiscated 42 red capules resembling seconal, 32 towering cliffs blot out most of the man-made landmarks. The twinkling of the stars couples with the shimmering, distant lights of Malibu. Some nights, the lights catch the blue-green phosphorescence of crashing whitecaps giving an almost other-worldly effect.

The other night, a friend came by and we took a walk along the beach, getting soaked in the process by rain and hail. After taking shelter under a cliff, we found the remains of a camp fire, apparently left by some shower victims. We built it up again with driftwood and sat, hypnotized, as the flames ate up the

But sadly enough, when the flames died down and we got up, we found our pants covered with blobs of oily goo, stark reminders of the Santa Barbara oil leak - of man's fouling his own nest.

Yours for natural beauty,

The West District of Wood-craft Rangers will hold its fourth annual tournament tofourth annual tournament to-morrow at Carson High School, 22328 S. Main St., Carson, Neil Roth, district executive, an-nounced today.

Thirty West District Wood-craft Ranger tribes, including more than 300 boys and girls, aged 7 to 12, will match skills in athletic events at the meet athletic events at the meet which is being arranged by the six Palos Verdes Peninsula region tribes.

The event will begin with registration at 10 a.m. and conclude at 4 p.m. A colorful parade of the youngsters in Indian dress, carrying their tribal totems will precede the awarding of honors to the winners at 3 p.m.

BOWL DOWN CANCER... Out of the Bag is the theme of the eighth annual all-county Bowl Down Cancer Week event currently under way at Gable House Bowling Center, Bowl-O-Drome, and Palos Verdes Bowl. Helping the news along are (from left) Peter Lupus of TV's "Mission Impossible;" and Marcellene Claiborne, Ed Parr, and Herb Quiring, all of Pacific Telephone. Event is open to upwards of 150,000 Los Angeles County League Bowlers who wish to fight cancer by paying entry fee of 50 cents. The money goes to the American Cencer Society for research, education and service to cencer patients.