Local Delegation Chosen For Adventist Conference

Officials of the Southern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists this week announced the appointment of six local delegates to an important, once-every-two-years business meeting of the Adventist faith. The meeting will be held Sunday in Glendale.

The local delegates are:

George Giese, Al Gordon, Floyd Stark, Virginia Axelson, and Enid Thorson. Alternates are: Catherine Cochran and Forrest Thomas.

Pastor David H. Pillor of the local Seventh-day Adventist Church at 1610 Acacia Ave., who will head the local delegation to the session said, "As far as the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church is concerned, this is one of the most important meetings of our faith."

The session, Pastor Pillor explained, will see the local delegates voting in the election of all officers of the Southern California Conference of Adventists, which is the governing body to which the local church looks for counsel.

"This biennial Constituency Meeting is the basic unit in the democratic process of choosing leaders in the Seventh-day Adventist Church," noted Pastor Pillor. "Delegates to this meeting are elected by the local church. Then these delegates elect the persons who will direct the Southern California Conference of the church, the body which gives counsel to the local church."

The Torrance church is one of 88 churches in the Southern California Conference of Adventists, operating in a territory which comprises Los Angeles, Ventura, Santa Barbara, and Kern Counties. A total of 800 delegates from all churches of the conference will be in attendance at the Constituency Meeting, Pastor Pillor noted.

Ascension Youth Win Art Prizes

Students from Ascension Lutheran School, 17910 S. Prairie Ave., received 13 awards in art and music at the annual Lutheran Music and Art Festival recently. Eighteen musical groups entered the Festival at Lutheran High School and six were chosen by the adjudicators as superior, and were asked to repeat their performances at a special program held at Rogers Park, Inglewood, in the afternoon.

Those honored included Julie Ahlers (piano solo), Steve Halverson (saxophone solo), DeLynne Miller (vocal solo), Sharon Thurn (clarinet solo), and Julie Ahlers and Cindy Edwards (vocal duet).

Ascension's Junior Choir, directed by Joseph Strubbe, earned a superior rating with their rendition of "Glory to God in the Highest" by Vierdanck.

Many other students entered art in the art portion of the Festival and received awards of merit in art. Winners of this award included Jodi Adkins, Tharon Pruss, Billy Raasch, Charles Scholz, Richard Stelle, and Tim Warneke.

Knights Observe Passiontide Rites

In observance of the opening of the Passiontide, the last two weeks of Lent, a Corporate Communion Mass will be sponsored by the SC. Chapter, Knights of Columbus, Sunday, 8 a.m., at St. Vibiana's Cathedral, Second and Main Streets, Los Angeles.

William Bix, Grand Knight, St. Gerard's Council, 4919, will head a representative group from Torrance-Lomita, which will be joined by similar units from the approximately 100 chapter-affiliated councils in the Southland.

His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, Archbishop of Los Angeles, will be the celebrant and the sermon will be delivered by Chapter Chaplain, Rev. Michael J. Haran, pastor, St. John the Evangelist Church, Los Angeles.

Following the church service, the Knights will assemble for breakfast in the Biltmore Bowl, at which His Eminence will be the honored guest.

Church Sets Production Of Requiem

The "Requiem" by Gabriel Faure will be presented by the Chancel Choir of the Riviera United Methodist Church Sunday evening at 7:30.

The choir, directed by Elizabeth Ivanoff Holborn, will be joined by Meredith Abramson, soprano, and Donald Ogren, bass-baritone.

Bob Mitchell's Singing Boys will be featured on the musical portion of the program, arranged by Marian Carter, organist and choir director, St. Cecilia's Church. David Walsh will serve as master of ceremonies and Nelson J. Baldo is committee chairman.

'Matter' Is Topic Of Talk

"Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth." This is the golden text of the Bible lesson-sermon to be heard at Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Matter."

Passages from the denominational textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following: "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God. If divine Love is becoming nearer, dearer, and more real to us, matter is then submitting to Spirit. The objects we pursue and the spirit we manifest reveal our standpoint, and show what we are winning."

In First Church of Christ, Scientist, 218th and Manuel Ave., the service begins at 11 a.m.

Easter Services Planned at Park

The Annual Easter Sunrise Services will be held on Sunday, April 6, Redondo Beach Veterans' Park, it was announced today by President James B. Wood, of the sponsoring Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Wood said the entire South Bay public is invited to the non-denominational services which start at 6 a.m. and conclude at 7 a.m. There is no charge, no collection will be made and parking meter fees will not be in effect.

REDONDO UNION High School's famed Madrigal Choir will be an integral part of the program, and an added attraction will be the Inglewood Citadel Band of The Salvation Army. An inspirational musical prelude by the Citadel Band will start at 5:45 a.m.

Lois Carah is director of the Madrigal Choir, which has appeared at previous Easter Sunrise Services at the Hollywood Bowl.

Hot coffee and rolls will be served starting at 5:45 a.m., through the courtesy of the Salvation Army mobile canteen.

WOOD SAID chairman of the Annual Easter program will be Dr. Alfred K. Corwin, chairman of the Chamber's Religious Activities Committee. This will be the fifth year Dr. Corwin, a Redondo Beach optometrist, will head the project.

Dr. Corwin, 45, was born in Columbus, Ohio, and is a graduate of Redondo Union High School. He received his B.A. from UCLA in 1949 and his O.D. from the Los Angeles College of Optometry in 1952.

HE SERVED with the U.S. Army in World War II and is now located in business at 419 Torrance, Redondo Beach. He is a member of the board of directors of the Redondo Chamber, a past president of the Redondo Beach Kiwanis Club, and is active in the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Corwin and his wife, Dorothy, reside at 4562 Marloma Drive, Rolling Hills, with children Robin 13, Ronald 12, and Deborah 8.

Members of the committee are: Robert Atkinson, Patricia Dreizler, Benton F. Hobbs, Robert G. LaRue, Ayleen Renke, John Renke, and Thomas E. Wilson.

Lenten Offering To Be Received

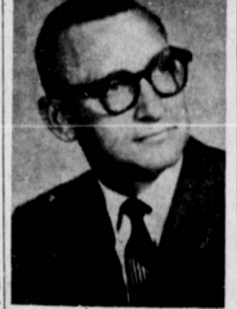

The Sunday service at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church, 24027 Pennsylvania Ave., will present some of the work accomplished by the One Great Hour of Sharing, the annual special offering received during the Lenten period.

The 1969 offering, however, will not be received until the following Sunday, Palm Sunday, according to the pastor, the Rev. Max E. Greenlee. Each week, during both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship services, the chancel choir presents an anthem under the direction of George Register, with members of the choir also singing solos, duets, or other special music, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Frances Roberts.

Church School is held for all ages at 9:30 a.m., Sunday, under the supervision of Mrs. Maxine Flint. Registrations have increased considerably since the first of the year because of the two worship services. The Sunday School is held only at the 9:30 hour. However, there is an adult supervised nursery for little children at both 9:30 and 11 a.m.

The Senior High and College Age Youth meet in their room at 6:30 p.m., with John Borgwat as the adult counselor. Discussions are held on topics pertinent to Christian life.

On Palm Sunday, the chancel choir will present a cantata by Roy Ringwald, "A Celebration of Easter," at 4 p.m. Solo parts are taken by June Betz, Bill Betz, Maxine Reeves, and Ella Borgwat.

REV. CLIFFORD HARRIS

Crusade Speaker To Visit

Rev. Levi Price, pastor of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church, Lomita, announces that the church will hold Open House Evangelistic Services nightly at 7:30 p.m. during the week of March 23 through 30. The speaker will be Rev. Clifford Harris, pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church in Fresno, Calif.

The meetings are a part of the Crusade of the Americas, a Baptist effort to evangelize and present Christ. Ted Roberts, minister of education and music at the church, will lead the song service and present music nightly.

A special feature presented by Rev. Harris will be "Pilgrim's Progress for Juniors." This is a class held at 7 p.m. nightly at the church for boys and girls, ages 9 through 12, using a special chart to illustrate the book Pilgrim's Progress. Friday night, a taco supper will be given for this age group at 6 p.m.

Rev. Price extends a welcome to the public to attend the Open House Services.

W. B. Teaford To Give Lecture

Dr. W. B. Teaford will be speaker Sunday at the Harbor City Foursquare Church, 835 W. 25th St., Harbor City. The service will be held at 7 p.m. He will talk on the tribulation of the church.

Holidays May Be Dropped

A compromise report from the Law Committee, which is expected to have the support of both the majority and the minority views in the committee, will eliminate for Conservative Jews the second day observance of the Festivals of Shavuot, Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret and the second and eighth days of Passover.

The lengthy report will be submitted to the Law Committee for ratification in the next few weeks. It is a consensus of the views of the majority and minority outlook on the committee, and thus is considered assured of unanimous approval.

The report bases its position on strict interpretation of Halacha, Jewish law. It points out that in Israel these holidays are observed for only one day. In Hebrew the second day observance outside of Israel is called Yom Tov Sheni Shel Galuyot.

It recounts how the second day was instituted when the system of alerting the foreign communities of the advent of Rosh Hodesh, the first day of the new Jewish month, broke down. "It is quite certain," the report relates, "that had our forefathers enjoyed the world wide system of communications at our disposal, such as telephone, telegraph and jet planes, each more effective than the bonfires and messengers formerly used for this purpose, Yom Tov Sheni Shel Galuyot and even the yoma arkhta, the "continuous day" (encompassing two days) of Rosh Hashanah would never have come into practice.
