Adventure Film Set April 25

A documentary film which has become almost a classic adventure will be presented by the Torrance Recreation Department in cooperation with the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History.

"The Sky Above—The Mud Below" will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 25, at the Joslyn Center. Admission is free.

In 1959 a French-Dutch expedition began a 1,000-mile trek through primitive, uncharted areas of New Guinea. Seven months later, only two members of the party had completed the trip. They survived the natural hazards of the land and encountered pygmies, headhunters and cannibals, some of whom were living as they did 7,000 years ago.

"The Sky Above—The Mud Below" is presented as a cultural service to the community by the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History.

Raines, a member of the Torrance chapter for the past three years, holds the Most Valuable Preceptor award and the Representative DeMolay award, the highest distinction a member of DeMolay can earn.

HE WILL serve as master counselor for six months. Raines is active in the Photography Club at El Camino.

Robert Argroves will be installed as senior counselor and the new junior counselor will be Kirk Robinson.

Chorale To Visit Hawaii

The El Camino College Chorale will travel to Hawaii Sunday for an appearance before the Music Educators Association convention in Honolulu.

The convention is scheduled March 30 through April 2.

Members of the Chorale raised funds for the trip through donations, candy sales, and special benefit concerts.

Founded eight years ago by the present director, music instructor Jane Hardester, the Chorale's selections for the convention include a group of contemporary music made up of "Stabat Mater," an Easter text by Stanley Hollingsworth, and "Couch of Death," by Dr. Bertram McGarrity. In a lighter vein will be E. E. Cummings nonsense poetry "In Just Spring," by Monte Tubb.

ECC Show To Parody 'Laugh-In'

Rehearsals and try-outs for "Giggle-in," a parody of television's popular comedy "Laugh-in," are under way at El Camino College in preparation for a May 31 performance.

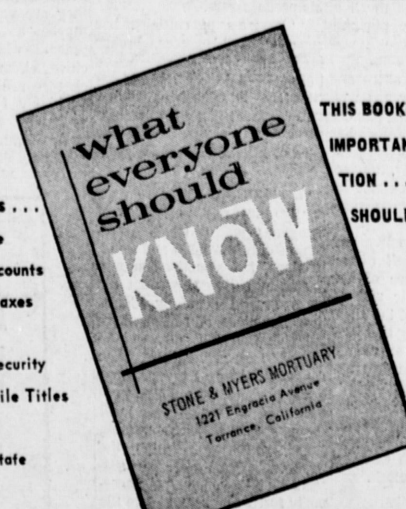

The musical-variety show will include campus-oriented humor. Doug Lawrence, music instructor and sponsor of the show, says it will be "completely different from anything we have ever done on campus."

The cast includes 40 students at this time, however try-outs will continue through next Friday. Lawrence emphasizes that other talent on the campus possibly has been overlooked.

"We are looking for people who can do impressions or have worked in comedy. We also need members of 'rock' groups," Lawrence said.

Two pastorels, from a set of Mrs. Barbara B. Mabin. Dr. Lewis Higel, acting dean by Jack Boyd and "Basket and Wood" by Cecil Effinger. of fine arts, and his wife, will accompany the travelers. Another Hawaii, is in charge of tour arrangements for the trip.
