Wareing, Nancy Wareing, and Mark Matthews. Some 45 young people from the church will spend their Easter vacation assisting churches in the Benjamin Hill area near Sonora, Mexico. They have raised $1,000 to help stock a chicken farm in the Benjamin Hill area.

Baptists to Aid Churches During Mexican Sojourn

Some 45 high school and college students from Torrance First Baptist Church and 20 adult sponsors will spend Holy Week in Sonora, Mexico. Purpose of the trip is to assist churches in the nearby Benjamin Hill area.

The group will leave Torrance tonight, making a rest stop at the First Baptist Church of Imperial, Calif. On Saturday, they will cross into Mexico at Nogales and travel south to Benjamin Hill, which will serve as their headquarters. The return trip will take them through San Luis, and they'll spend the night as guests of the First Baptist Church of Yuma, Ariz. The group will be back in Torrance, Saturday, April 5.

All persons participating have been attending a training and orientation series taught by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Manriquez from the Benjamin Hill area.

The young people will pay their own expenses, and have raised $1,000 through car washes and other projects for donation to a Benjamin Hill church. The money will be used for the repair and expansion of a chicken ranch there. Supplying feed and baby chicks for the ranch has been a special project of the Torrance youth group for several years.

Supervising the trip is Barney Kinard, minister of youth. Other leaders are Richard McGinty, basketball team; Harry Matthews, baseball team; A. D. Rupe, food and transportation; Tom Irvine, music; the Rev. Lloyd Newlin, pastor; and John and Madeleine Stanley, work team.

A teen folk singing group, The Burning Bush, will be performing each night at local auditoriums in the Benjamin Hill area.
