Mrs. Harry Vannatta will conduct the business meeting asking for a report on the membership committee from Mrs. Morten Jones, chairman. Mrs. Raymond Young will report on the up-coming trip to the Huntington Library, which will be held on Wednesday, April 9.

After the meeting, Mrs. Edward Morris, service chairman, will conduct a work period to make Easter favors for a convalescent home.

Faulds-O'Neal Vows Recited

Miss Deryle Heather Faulds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Faulds of Etobicoke, Ontario, Canada, formerly of Torrance, walked down the aisle of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, on the arm of her father, at seven o'clock on Saturday, March 22, to exchange marriage vows with Michael James O'Neal. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. L. J. O'Neal, 22322 Kent Ave., Torrance.

For her wedding, she wore a traditional gown of ivory peau de soie with a fitted bodice of English net enhanced with Alencon lace appliques. The lace also decorated the three quarter sleeves, the panel down the front of the gown, and the long detachable train. A lace petal headpiece sprinkled with seed pearls, and crystals, held the ivory silk illusion veil. The bride carried a cascade of ivory roses and stephanotis atop a white prayer book.

Attired in spring green moire, attendants were Miss Gaye Kirkland, maid of honor; Misses Elaine Jordan and Terry Godfrey, bridesmaids; and Sheri Lee Faulds, junior bridesmaid. Flower girls, in green moire and carrying green baskets of white petals, were Susan and Linda Stapleford.

Neil Demoulin stood as best man and ushers were Hank Madigan, Roderick Faulds, and Robert Mareno.

The Rev. Hugh Percy officiated at the marriage ceremony and nuptial music was played by Mr. T. Feelin. Fred Peterson was soloist.

The 225 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception at 22833 Arlington Ave. Cocktails and a buffet were served as music was played by the Adlibs.

The couple left by car for Canada where they will be honored at another reception given by the bride's parents. They will then go to North Carolina where they will live until next October when they will return to Torrance.

The bride, a 1967 graduate of Torrance High School, attended El Camino College and was graduated from Blaid College of Medical Assistants in January, 1969.

Mr. O'Neal, a 1966 graduate of South High, recently completed a tour of duty in Vietnam with the 82nd Airborne Division. He is now stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C.

Hippety Hop Bunny is On His Way

Coffee, juice and doughnuts will be served and the hunt will begin at 10:30 a.m. Reservations and tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Raymond Bartholio or Mrs. Aguiar. (Press-Herald Photo)

Rose Degree Given To Four Beta Sigma Phis

The highest honor for which a member may strive in Beta Sigma Phi is the Order of the Rose degree. It is an honorary degree created during the Silver Anniversary year to express the gratitude and esteem of a chapter or city council toward an active or honorary member, who has distinguished herself in Beta Sigma Phi.

Receiving this highest honor in the Preceptor Alpha Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be Mmes. Andrew Foster, Lester Mayfield, Jacqueline Pinkney, and Blanche McCallum. These members, upon whom the degree will be conferred are noted for fidelity to the ideals of Beta Sigma Phi, their industry, and loyal devotion to the organization throughout their membership, for at least 15 years.

Mrs. Robert Nickelson, vice president, in charge of the event will be assisted by Mrs. Alan S. Moore, who will read the ritual. Mrs. Moore is an honorary member of Beta Sigma Phi and sponsor of the South Bay Area Council. Miss Andrea Foster will play during the ritual.

The event will be held in the Briarwood Recreation Center, 3500 W. Manchester Blvd., Inglewood, Monday evening, March 31, at 8 p.m.

Invitations have been sent to all chapter members of Alpha Alpha Omega, Xi Zeta Lambda, and Xi Zeta Chi and to many close friends and relatives of the honorees, and members of Preceptor Alpha Beta Chapter.
