Statement Issued on Ike's Death

Congressman Glenn M. Anderson (D-17th District) Friday has joined other national and international leaders in expressing his sympathy at the death of General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"America is sad today because of the passing of a great American symbolic of his service to his country. As General, he led our nation to victory in World War II, and as President he led our nation to peace through a difficult decade. We shall truly miss this great man as will the entire world."

LOW OVERHEAD
Only 2.8 per cent of the more than $7 billion appropriated for veterans in fiscal '68 went for administrative expenses, the Veterans Administration reports.
