

Easter Service Slated

The Redondo Beach Easter sunrise service will be held in Veteran's Park Bandshell from 6 to 7 a.m. Easter Sunday.

Robert G. LaRue, principal of Hermosa View School, Hermosa Beach, will deliver the Easter message.

An inspirational music prelude and postlude will be furnished by the Salvation Army Citadel Band of Inglewood.

The Redondo Union High School Madrigal Choir, directed by Mrs. Lois Carah, will present three numbers.

The public is invited at no charge. There will be no collections made.

The Salvation Army Canteen again will serve donuts and coffee, starting at 5:45 a.m., Dr. Alfred K. Corwin, chairman for the sponsoring Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce, said.

Art Films Slated at El Camino

A worldwide expose on creative cinema produced by 16 leading international film makers will be presented at El Camino College in a unique series of three film programs called "The Kinetic Art" to be screened April 7, 14 and 21 at 8 p.m. in the college auditorium.

A round-up on what's happening in the world creative cinema, the series offers the viewer a first-hand panoramic view of a phenomenal cinema art gallery show.

The international film showing is composed of 26 short films ranging in length from 55 seconds to 55 minutes.

THE MASTER film makers who form the guild of producers producing this unique series come from Europe, Japan, and the United States. They are offering a variety of viewing from a dozen recent festivals including Mannheim, Oberhausen, Cannes, and Venice . . . from Czechoslovakia, France, Hungary, Germany, Yugoslavia, Italy, Japan, England, and the United States.

"The Kinetic Art" is being shown throughout the United States and Canada following its world premiere last July at the New York City Lincoln Center for the performing arts.

Tickets for the series are on sale in the El Camino bookstore.

Pill Toss Results In Arrest

A routine traffic stop Friday led to the arrest of three area youths on charges of possession of dangerous drugs.

Arrested at the corner of Newton Street and Pacific Coast Highway were Kenneth W. Eck, 19, of 1130 E. Renton St.; Donald W. McKinsey, 20, 22309 S. Marine Ave.; and Russell Lee Berry, 20, 22722 Catskill Ave., Carson.

Police said they saw one of the youths throw a clear plastic sack out of the car window. The sack contained eight white tablets resembling benzadrine, police said.

The trunk of the car contained a car tape player with the serial numbers removed, police noted.

BREAK FOR TAXPAYERS
Over-burdened taxpayers get one break, at least. Not one cent of local, state, or federal tax money is used in the annual presentation of the Los Angeles County Fair, Pomona, opening its 17-day run Sept. 12.
