

Under Western Skies

Young riders from the southland will compete all day tomorrow at the Empty Saddle Club in Rolling Hills when the Wingrock School sponsors its annual National Junior Horse Show. A special attraction will be the Tom Thumb Class to be presented during the lunch break for riders 9 years of age and under. In anticipation of the event, boots and saddles get full attention from, left, Mrs. Dick Cowman with a boot; Janine Remillard holding a bridle; Conni Bowman putting on boots; while Mrs. Bruce Remillard and Andy Cowman, polish a saddle. Admission is free and food will be on sale throughout the days. (Press-Herald Photo)

At Empty Saddle Club

Wingrock's Horse Show Tomorrow

The Wingrock National Horse Show will be held April 5 at the Empty Saddle Club in Rolling Hills from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is free and hamburgers, hot dogs, and other refreshments will be served the entire day.

The show is a registered American Horse Shows Association Local Show as well as being completely approved by the Pacific Coast Hunter, Jumper and Stock Horse Association. Both English and Western equestrians and their mounts are schooling for the event. Junior classes are offered to youngsters up to 18 years of age while 13 "open" classes are offered for entrants of all ages. Noteworthy classes are the AHSA Hunter Seat Medal Class and the AHSA Stock Seat Medal Class, enabling the winners to progress toward the final championship ride-off to be held in the fall. The Barbara Worth Good Hands and Seat Medal Class is also offered and the winner will qualify to ride in the final ride-off to be held at a specified time later in the year.

Winners of the 33 scheduled events for the day will ride off with a silver trophy accompanied by a blue ribbon. Ribbons will be presented to 10th place for all medal classes and to sixth place for all other classes. An added attraction will be a Tom Thumb Class to be presented during the lunch break for riders 9 years of age and under.

As The Show Time Draws Near

These three members of Las Madrecitas, all involved with creating the festive setting for their "Passport to Fashion" benefit next Thursday at the Proud Bird, have traveled far and near gathering appropriate decorations. They are, in the car, Mrs. Garth Bower and Mrs. William Mayhall while Mrs. A. B. Diiorio takes a rest on the car trunk. Mrs. John Ashford may be called for reservations.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Las Madrecitas Presents

Yearly Fashion Show Benefit

An oriental motif will dominate the decorations and the fashion presentation when Las Madrecitas Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital sponsors its annual Fashion Show and Luncheon on Thursday, April 10, at the Proud Bird Restaurant.

Auxiliary members and their guests will gather for a social hour beginning at 11:30 a.m. followed by the luncheon at 12:30.

Highlight of the "Passport to Fashion" extravaganza will be a Headdress Parade in which many women's philanthropic groups of the South Bay will compete for the cash prize to be donated to their charitable funds.

Mrs. Robert Lancaster and Mrs. Richard Saroyan are serving as general chairmen of the benefit at which the special attraction will be an exclusive showing of the spring and summer fashions by the designer Helga.

A "Touch of the Far East" will be effectively used by Mrs. Garth Bower and Mrs. William Mayhall, decorations chairmen and their committee. Mrs. Donald Black has handled the invitations and Mrs. John Ashford is accepting reservations. Mrs. Mark Roessler has handled the printing and Mrs. R. W. Speich is in charge of the door prizes to be awarded throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Howard Anderson is chairman of the Headdress Parade and the publicity has been handled by Mrs. Sid Fleischman and Frederick Gledhill.

Proceeds from this gala social event will go to the auxiliary's pledge of $33,000 to furnish a six-crib ward at the Orthopaedic Hospital.

South Bay Hospital Auxiliary's Annual Fashion Event Set

"Fashionscope" is the exciting theme chosen by the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary for its annual benefit Fashion Luncheon to be staged this year on April 24 at the Los Verdes Country Club. A social hour will begin at 11 a.m. followed by the luncheon at 12 noon.

Mrs. C. R. Walker of Manhattan Beach is serving as general chairman of the event. Mrs. Kerne Anderson is co-chairman.

Assisting with other arrangements for the social event are Mmes. Carl Rausch, Gayle Martin, Richard Nielsen, John Fraser, Robert Scholl, Thomas Mulhern Jr., Duke Schneider, Irving Kurman, and Jay Sherman.

The major door prize to be awarded during the fashion parade will be a cruise for two aboard the Princess Carla.

Proceeds from the affair will go to the Auxiliary's fund for providing nursing scholarships to deserving students attending El Camino College.

What Does The Future Hold?

Faraway places and the season's new fashions to be worn at these places are causing eager anticipation among members of the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary as they prepare for their annual Fashion Show at which a cruise for two will be given away. Eager to know what the future holds, Mrs. Kerne Anderson, co-chairman, asks Mrs. Richard Nielsen to tell her what she sees in the crystal ball.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Basic Greek Dance Class Offered

A beginning class in basic Greek dances for adults and young people is being offered under the auspices of the Daughters of Penelope, Anthos Chapter 312 at St. Katherine Greek Eastern Orthodox Church, 722 Knob Hill, Redondo. The first in a series of five lessons begins Thursday, April 17, at 8 o'clock. Chapter members going through a routine are, from left, Mmes. Gus P. Anastassiou, Willard A. Dodge Jr., Anne Scoufas, and John Donlou.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

B-2

FRIDAY, APRIL 4, 1969

Speaks-Ciscel Vows Read at St. Cross

Miss Deborah L. Speaks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Findley, 20425 Osage Ave., Torrance, walked down the aisle of the St. Cross Episcopal Church at 2 o'clock on March 8 to exchange marriage vows with David R. Ciscel. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ciscel Sr., 21301 Evalyn Ave., Torrance. Mr. Findley escorted the bride to the altar. She wore a full length gown of white lace, sprinkled with crystals. The gown was fashioned with a long train. A headpiece of seed pearls held the elbow length veil and she carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and tiny pink rosebuds. Miss Janet Allen served as the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward Kuntz Jr., Mrs. Timothy Speaks, Misses Claudia Speaks and Shelley Ciscel. Tracey Ciscel was a junior bridesmaid. Juan Piderman stood as best man and ushers were Edward Kuntz Jr., Russell Barden Jr., Timothy Speaks, Robert Ciscel Jr., and Thomas Findley. The Rev. Richard Parker officiated at the double ring marriage ceremony which was followed by a reception at the church. A honeymoon was spent at Desert Hot Springs. The bride, a 1968 graduate of West High School, had been employed by the Torrance Unified School District. Her husband, a 1967 graduate of West High, attended El Camino College before entering the United States Air Force. He is stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base. The newlyweds are now at home at 1771 Grant Ave., Apt. 2, Novato, Calif.

Polish Women Announce New Meeting Location

South Bay Chapter of the Polish Women's Alliance of America announces that its meeting will be held the third Tuesday of each month (except for April) at the Beverly Hills Federal Savings and Loan Association, 25416 Crenshaw Blvd. in Torrance at 7:30 p.m.

The new calendar for the year has also been planned including a Mothers Day Luncheon at the Princess Louise on Saturday, May 24 at 1:30 p.m.; the annual Family Picnic, Sunday, July 27 at Point Fermin in San Pedro; Annual Fall Dance, Saturday, Nov. 29 at Retail Clerks Hall in Harbor City; and the Christmas Wigilla, Saturday, Dec. 23.

Rev. Karp of the St. James parish, chaplain for the chapter, will conduct the traditional blessing of food baskets at St. James at 1 p.m. on Holy Saturday. All members are urged to attend.

The South Bay Chapter was organized in 1959 and chartered in 1963 for all women of Polish extraction in Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City, Palos Verdes, Redondo Beach, Manhattan Beach, Rolling Hills, Gardena, Hawthorne, and San Pedro. The chapter now has 87 members.

The meeting this month will be held April 22 at 7:30 at the new location. Officers serving are Mary Shurgot of Lomita, president; Mary Horvat, Lomita, vice president; Helen Murovski, San Pedro, financial secretary; Jean A. Saks, Torrance, recording secretary; Phyllis Hargraves, Gardena, treasurer; Clara Krane, Inglewood junior group garland chairman; Helen Hironymous, Lomita, hospitality chairman.

Others are Lucille Glass, Torrance, sunshine chairman; Mary Horvat, Lomita, chairman of the ways and means committee, composed of Lucille Leon, Redondo Beach; Peggy Tatklewicz; and Helen Hironymous, Lomita.

Council delegates are Estelle Green, San Pedro; Helen Murovski, San Pedro; Phyllis Hargraves, Gardena; Mary Horvat and Mary Shurgot, Lomita; and Clara Krane, Inglewood. Elinor Tenke, Torrance, is sergeant-at-arms.

New members are always welcome and may secure further information by contacting any of the officers or attending the April 22 meeting.

Torrance

Torrance Co. meet Wednesday the Torrance ter. Coffee w a.m. and M will preside 9:30 a.m.

Convention tend four cl ing to State Mrs. Bea Ha PTT-Parliame course be April 8, at S 4600 Merrill S a.m. All conv officers and are urged to good workin PTA.

Thirty-Thir vention will b High School, 10, at 9:45 a urged to atten

During Kir dup, April 7- board memb freshments mothers and portunity to with PTA act

There will ers meeting a.m. in the board will m 9:30 a.m. in th

The followi elected a meeting on M E. Paul Ful James Kapp moto, William president recording se Erfile, cor tary; Walter surer; Thom tor; and Jac rian.

Parents, te dents are bu "Curtain Call ety show to April 18, at High Cafeteri

LI

"Behind th was the them Elementary meeting whe Miller, Hono

Nu Ta you rem em