

United Crusade Hands Out Awards for 1968 Effort

Gold and silver plaques, silver bowls, and sincere appreciation for dedicated service during the 1968-69 Harbor area United Crusade campaign was the business of the evening at the fifth annual United Crusade awards dinner.

Master of ceremonies was Robert Sprague, manager-treasurer of Shell Oil Co. in Wilmington, who was United Crusade campaign chairman here for joint United Way-American Red Cross appeal for funds.

The Harbor area includes Carson, Dominguez, Wilmington, San Pedro, Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills, Gardena, Harbor City, Lomita and Torrance.

RECOGNITION also was given to Elmer Wasson, Pacific Telephone Committee, for his service to the community as United Way Harbor area board chairman for the past two years. The United Way budget committee chairman for 1967 and 1968, Robert F. Son of Bank of America, also was honored.

Les Bruns, commerce and industry group chairman from Shell Oil Co., presented awards to local firms and employee chairmen who made outstanding contributions to United Crusade.

Gold plaque awards went to six employee groups who achieved 100 per cent of their goal. These included Community Hospital of Gardena, Eleanor Smith; Foods Co. Market in Torrance, Rose Hicks; Foods Co. Market in Norwalk, Stan Sanger; Foods Co. Market in Wilmington, Susie Phillips; Tool Components, Inc., Gardena, Robert Thormer; and Western Concrete Structures, Gardena, Allan Stubbs and Gilbert Roswell.

TEN EMPLOYEE groups who reached 80 per cent of their 1968 quota received silver plaque awards. They were Burgmaster Corp., Gardena; Ken Bocard; Curry Aircraft Forming Inc., Torrance; Gloria Folkens; Diamond Perforated Metals Co., Gardena; Kathleen Berger; Foods Co. Market, Los Angeles; Letitia Borlap; Foods Co. General Office, Jackie Foreman; General Forming Co., Torrance; Jane Klabunde; Halex, Inc., Torrance; Janet Green; Metropolitan Life Insurance, San Pedro; William Rose; Torrance Police Department, Lt. Darrell Lanham; and Van Camp Insurance Co., Joanne Bezich.

The corporate fair share award was given to five Harbor area firms giving at, or in excess of, their fair share contribution. These include Audio Magnetics Corp. of Gardena, Irving Katz, president; Golden State Rubber and Latex Corp. of Gardena, Douglas Chalmers, president; National Lines Bureau, Inc., San Pedro, Donald Ulrich, president; Tool Components, Inc., Gardena, Burton Belzer, president; Western Concrete Structures Co. Inc., Gardena, Allan Stubbs, president.

THREE employee groups in the Harbor area received outstanding service awards for achieving outstanding employee campaigns just under the silver plaque goal. They are Daseco Hinge Co., Torrance, Marcelyn Graham; Dow Chemical Co., Torrance, Doyle Wolfgang; and Nork Products Co., Gardena, James McMahon.

Thirty-five United Way agencies and the American Red Cross branch serving the Harbor area either won "pacesetter" or gold plaque awards for their participation in the United Crusade fund drive.

Residential chairman Mrs.

Robert Jacobs made presentations of silver bowl and outstanding service certificates to Harbor area women who performed unusually well in the door-to-door solicitation.

SILVER bowls were given to Mrs. Frank Traylor, who was the section chairman who went first over goal in the section with the highest quota in San Pedro. Mrs. Mary Fine earned a silver bowl for her efforts as a section chairman in Carson and for being the first section chairman to make goal in the Harbor area.

Four other section chairmen received silver bowls in recognition of their service and for going over their established goals. These include Mrs. Frederick Quirk, Gardena; Mrs. Russell Sorensen, Harbor

City-Lomita; Mrs. Robert Per-pall, Palos Verdes Estates; and Mrs. Walter Hodgson, Torrance.

Mrs. Allan Lind, Palos Verdes, who was group mobilization chairman, and Mrs. Jacobs also received silver bowls.
