Among the thousands of books suggesting remedies for tired marriages, there is one which has all the answers, according to Seventh-day Advent-

sts. Likewise, one book contains more wisdom on teenage prob-lems, crumbling moral stan-dards, and chaotic world conditions than any other.

It is the Bible.
On Saturday, members of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., will offer this great problem-solver volume to residents in Torrance as part of their answer to better citizenship.

swer to better citizenship.

According to Floyd Stark, lay activities director of the local church, members will visit homes throughout the community on Saturday afternoon offering a free Bible and a special set of study lessons which aid in finding quick answers from the Scriptures.

"There are many persons in Torrance who really want to know what their Bible says about problems in their lives," said Stark, "but they always had a hard time finding the various answers the Bible gives.

Louise Isom of New Horizons, Torrance, served on the Grand Jury two years ago and was therefore invited to be a spectator at the trial of Sirhan B. Sirhan, who has been sentenced to die in the gas chamber for the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

In her own words, Mrs. Isom described a personal conversadescribed a personal conversa-tion she had with Mrs. Mary Sirhan, mother of the con-victed slayer, during the trial:

"DURING A recess at a famous trial I attended recently.
I noted a little old lady. She was small; her head did not reach my shoulder, and her graying hair was pulled back in a bun. She wore a simple but very clean and inexpensive dress. Her eyes were red-rimmed as if she had been crying. "Although the hallway was crowded, she stood all aione in a sort of empty space. People avoided her but kept casting curious glances her way.

"BECAUSE I felt sorry for her, I stepped over and put my arm around her shoulder and said, 'Mrs. Sirhan, I am a mother too, and my heart bleeds for you. I don't see how you have the courage to face all this."

all this."
"She smiled weakly and said, 'I read the Bible every morning, and God gives me strength."
"I then said to her, 'My mother used to tell me when I was a girl in my teens that when your children are small they step on your toes.'

"MRS. SIRHAN remembered the rest of the old saying and said, 'And when they are grown, they step on your heart.' She then turned to walk away, but not before adding. 'You are a good woman. God smiles on you.'
