

CDA Court To Mark Anniversary

Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, will celebrate its 24th anniversary with a Mass and Breakfast Sunday, April 27.

Rev. Rudolph De La Cerna will celebrate the 8 o'clock Mass at the Nativity Catholic Church.

Members, their husbands and guests will then go to the Lobster House, 665 Harbor Dr., Redondo for a breakfast. Co-chairmen for the anniversary celebration are Mmes. Elles Cook and Richard Molony.

Assisting them are Mmes. Richard Ban, Lyle O'Hara, Gerald Revelle, John MacDonald, William Cockran, Lorne Durward, William Hartley, William Hauser, Andrew Rabel, Dorothea O'Brien, Margaret McLean, Eva Eldredge and Muriel Gately.

Special guests at the breakfast will be Rev. De La Cerna and Rev. John Cremens of Nativity Church; Mrs. Arliss Dorn of Fresno, state regent; Mrs. Frank Rosiak of Lemon Grove, state vice-regent; Mrs. Arthur Rinaldi, of Hawthorne, state treasurer.

Past state regents, who will attend, are Mmes. Josephine Bombardier, Wilma Lewis and Mary Haberstron. State chairmen invited are Mmes. Dorothy Reutebuch, Monica Bergschneider and Mary Butterfield. Many area chairmen and grand regents will also be here.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Antoinette Magini, vice president of Madonna Manor of Salinas, the Catholic Daughters home for retired members. She will also show slides of the home.

Anyone interested in attending may make reservations with any of the committee members.

Preparing to celebrate its 24th anniversary, on Sunday April 27, is Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America. After attending mass at Nativity Church, members and guests will go to the Lobster House for a birthday breakfast. Planning the event are from left, Mmes William Cochran, Richard Molanx and John J. MacDonald, working with decorations, while Mmes Frances Ban, Elles Cook and Muriel Gately look over the breakfast menu. (Press-Herald Photo)

Planning Birthday Party

Mothers of Twins Slate Gala Hobo Party

Walteria Business Men's Club will become an authentic "Hobo Camp" tomorrow evening when the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club members entertain husbands and guests at a "Hobo Party."

Arriving at 8 p.m., partygoers will be wearing their versions of "hobo" garb to compete for prizes, which will be awarded in "biggest, littlest, cutest and most original" categories.

A fun evening has been planned. There will be all kinds of games and dancing. At midnight, a buffet supper will be served in true "hobo" style.

Arrangements for the party are being handled by Mmes. Jerry Steinbrecher, Leroy Cramer and Thomas Webb, all of Torrance.

Assisting them are Mmes. Lonnie Cadis, Robert Evans, Dave Fosmire, Warren Gray, Tom Leonard, John Rand, Carl Sorenson and Herbert Thun.

Anyone wishing to attend the party and needing more information may call Mrs. Jerry Steinbrecher.

Queens of The Road

Planning their "Hobo Party" for tomorrow evening at the Walteria Business Men's Club, these committee members take time out for a "hobo" lunch. They are, from left, Mmes Steve Sailors, second vice president; Lon Cadis, decorations chairman; and Carl Sorenson, publicity chairman. Husbands will be guests at the fun event.

(Press-Herald Photo)

MRS. STEPHEN SOQUI
... New President

Torrance Welcome Wagon Club Elects; Plans Installation

Mrs. Stephen Soqui will serve as president of the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club for the coming year.

A native Californian, the new president was graduated from Washington High School and worked for two years as a secretary for the Automobile Club. During training for an airlines hostess with Western Airlines, she met and married Stephen Soqui, an employee in the engineering department of Superior Scaffold Co.

The couple have two children, Stephen Tyler 4 and Shannon Todd 2.

Elected to serve with the president were Mmes. Morris Holmes, vice president; Leonard Scheese, second vice president; Glenn Bartholio, recording secretary; David Melrose, corresponding secretary; Michael Brajevich, treasurer; and Steven Butler, historian.

To be announced later are Mrs. Soqui's appointments of chairmen of Couples Activities; Bridge; Trips for Kicks; welfare; publicity; membership assistant; reservations assistant; decorations; baby-sitting; inspiration, bowling, civics, book discussion and the gourmet group.

These new officers will be installed at a luncheon May 8 at the Lobster House. Mrs. Don Martin, official Welcome Wagon hostess, will preside.

After the luncheon, there will be a fashion show of homesewn creations and an arts and crafts display. "A Country Fair" will be the theme.

Future Bride

Spangler - Drissel

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Spangler, 428 Paseo de las Estrellas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Christy Jill, to Donald J. Drissel, Jr., son of Mrs. Albert Starling, Hawthorne, and Col. Donald J. Drissel, Sr., (ret.) of Stuttgart, Germany.

The bride-elect was graduated from South High School in 1966 and is employed by North American Rockwell Corp.

Her fiancé, a 1963 Washington High graduate, has completed active duty in Vietnam with the United States Air Force. He will be graduated in June from El Camino College and will enter California State College, Long Beach, in September to major in criminology.

The couple will be married May 31 at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church.

The bride's sister, Heidi Jan Spangler will serve as maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Susan Gault and Kim Merritt.

CHRISTY SPANGLER

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

A-8

APRIL 25, 1969

Hospital Auxiliary Members

To Attend Annual Convention

Delegations from the Hospital Auxiliaries of the South Bay area will attend the 39th annual convention of the Association of Western Hospitals to be held at the Disneyland Hotel beginning Monday, April 28, and continuing through Thursday May 1.

Women from 12 western states will be in attendance at the Auxiliary Section of the convention. Theme for the section meetings is "Volunteering ... Working Together."

Mrs. Thomas C. Rupert of Torrance will serve as chairman of the Auxiliary Section.

Serving with Mrs. Rupert from this area as panel moderators are Mrs. Joseph F. Fischer and Mrs. Arthur Grayson.

Local women in the role of round table leaders will be Mrs. Edward J. Armend and Mrs. Paul R. McGrath.

MRS. THOMAS RUPERT
... Section Chairman

Clipped Wings Club Slates Benefit Party

Flowers, fashions and fun will theme a festive benefit social event on Tuesday, April 29, when the TWA Clipped Wings Club welcomes members and guests at a bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. John R. Day, 11 Outrider Road, Rolling Hills.

Spring arrangements of yellow daisies will decorate each table in the pool area where guests will be served luncheon while viewing a parade of summer fashions furnished by Riviera Village and Redondo Beach fashion firms. A boutique table of gift items will be on display.

Mrs. D. J. Bollinger, president, announces that the climax of the afternoon will be the awarding of many door prizes among which is a trip to Las Vegas.

Proceeds from the benefit will go to the club's Cystic Fibrosis fund at Children's Hospital.

Mrs. William Gordon is chairman of the party. She is assisted by Mmes. James Grantham, food; Gerald Foss, door prizes; Jeffrey Black, invitations; Donald Fahland, boutique; Lawson Williams, punch bowl; Donald Wallace and Dale Williams, tickets.

The public is invited to attend.