

Area Boys Take Over For Week

Boys from three area high schools will join boys from other Los Angeles City high schools this week as the city of Los Angeles observes its 47th annual Boy's Week.

Highlight of the program was yesterday's observance of Recognition in Government Day, when the young men assumed positions of leadership throughout the city government.

Leading the contingent of boys was Tim Evans, 17-year-old student president at Franklin High School, who took the place of Mayor Sam Yorty.

Area boys participating in the program attend Banning, Carson, and Narbonne High schools.

Students from Banning were: Rickford Bradley, 17, deputy chief of police, Eugene Hayashibara, 18, general manager of the Department of Animal Regulation; Rick Ravitz, 17, judge of the Superior Court; Denny Vigil, 17, county engineer; Mark R. Wilkerson, 17, judge of the Superior Court; and Eric Y. Yamamoto, 17, Long Beach School Employees Federal Credit Union.

Carson High School students included: Robert J. Cozart, 17, Joe Diaz, 17, and Louis Flatoa, 16, judges of the Superior Court; Robert E. Hagedorn, 18, and Alec Millado, 17, judges of the Municipal Court; David Morris, 16, Long Beach School Employees Federal Credit Union; Mike Runyan, 19, county counsel; Henry Sandoval, 18, member of the Board of Water and Power Commissioners; Mark Sugimoto, 17, assistant dean, Harbor College; Dean Wada, 18, inspector of police, and Eugene Wada, 18, city treasurer.

Students from Narbonne High School included: Fred Barry, 18, Municipal Court judge, Doug Chagnon, 18, director of planning, Regional Planning Commission, Jeffery Finley, 17, Los Angeles police captain, Wayne Mitchell, 17, battalion chief, training, Los Angeles City Fire Department; David Newman, 17, and Lawrence R. Schuler, 17, Superior Court judges; Harry E. Perkinson Jr., 17, director of the County Department of Mental Health; and Mike Ortega, 18, assistant superintendent of schools, secondary Area A.

A Boys' Day in Recreation will be held Friday and many parks have scheduled Father-Son programs for Saturday, May 3. The week began last Sunday with a Boys' Recognition in Churches.

Retired Los Angeles County Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailus heads the Council for Promotion of Boys' Welfare, which initiated Boys' Week in 1923.

USC School Of Pharmacy Gets Check

A 16-year tradition was continued this week as Thrifty Drug and Discount Stores presented the University of Southern California's School of Pharmacy with a check covering three one-year scholarships.

Dr. John Biles, Dean of the School of Pharmacy, accepted the check on behalf of the School of Pharmacy from Manny Borun, Executive Vice President of Thrifty.

The 1969-70 academic year scholarships represent the 16th consecutive year that they have been given by Thrifty in the interest of assisting and encouraging students to enter the pharmacy profession. Administration of the scholarships and selection of recipients will be under the complete direction of Dean Biles.
