

Woman's Club Captures 21 District Awards

Press-Herald

Edna Cloyd, Editor

At the California Heritage banquet, Thursday evening, during the three day Marina District annual convention held at the Airport Marina Hotel, Torrance Woman's Club delegates were kept busy going to the podium to accept awards for achievements during the past year. The club chalked up eight first place spots, seven second places, and three special awards, and a special award for the president, Mrs. Robert Winship for her 100% attendance at district meetings.

ned to save and En has ar

rm system

glamorous

miliar wit

advice co

Standar

ecializes in Danes, St. ns and other who often lations prob-s. However, oesn't mea-Dane stand-at is still out rding facili-ovides Schn-n Shepherd has an ex-healthy pupboarding fa-it Jolly Rog-mber of the type of care vays 24-hour l which may rmation and gements at

.

In the left picture are chairmen and their awards, seated from left, Mmes. Robert Winship, president; R. E. Moffitt, first place, community improvement; Wayne L. Norman, first, ESO and library service; D. J. Thomsen, first, junior coordinator. standing, Mmes. Don Wolf, second, United Nations and International Policy; Alan S. Moore, second, mental health; Leslie

. . . Lioness President (Photo Arts Photo)

Steigh, first, coordinator; Dale Blivens, first, California history and landmarks. Pictured at the right, seated from left, Mmes. E. P. Dis-

brow, second place Armed Forces and Veterans Affairs; Fred P. Adams, first, drama and speech; Richard Rankin, first, children and youth; A. L. Raboch, second, gardens and beautification; standing, Mmes Alma Smith, first, citizenship; Victor Krondak, second, religion; Bruce Marsh, second, conservation; Neil E. Campbell, first, family living. Not pictured, Mmes. Gordon Gmur, first, children and youth; Clayton Lilly, first, press book; A. F. Barker, second, art. Special awards included a first place, dean of chairman, Mrs. J. A. Tweedy; and a first place to the club for its Foundation Fund. (Press-Herald Photos)

Torrance Lady Lions Plan Installation Dinner Dance

Mrs. Ross Morris will be installed as president of the Torrance Lioness Club at a dinner dance tomorrow evening at the Tasman Seas restaurant.

* * * Mrs. Morris and her husband, both natives of Canada, came to Torrance in 1954. They have four children, Jody, Joanne, John and Jimmie, students at Bonita School where their mother is a past president of the PTA. The family attends the Methodist Church and Mrs. Morris teaches Sunday school. A member of the Lioness Club for seven years, the new president has held many offices. She attends Harbor College working on her teaching credentials. Mr. Morris is manager of a car agency in South Gate.

Other Lady Lion officers to be installed with Mrs. Morris are Mmes. Giles Stadler, first vice president; Al Redisch, second vice president; Milton Isbell, treasurer; Newell Larson, recording secretary; Byron Chan, corresponding secretary; and Jim Krueger, hair puller.

Mrs. Paul Burnam is chairman of the installation. She is being assisted by Mmes. Louis Assink, retiring president, Al Redisch, and Cecil Powell.

> Flowers Of May

Mrs. John Dunbar, left, social chairman, arrives with a basket of May flowers, to be used at the Jaycette Membership Tea tomorrow, to plan the complete decor with two past presidents, Mmes, Hal Lindborg, center and Mrs. Douglas Hedde, who will be among the honored guests. Prospective members are invited and all past presidents will be honored. Mrs. Leon Taylor is chairman. -(Press-Herald Photo)

Local B&PW Club Installs Officers

20

Mrs. O. D. Land accepted the gavel to serve as president of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club at installation ceremonies at the Laden With countant for a local manufac-Indian Village, Monday eve-ning, April 21. A native of Seattle, Wash.,

Mrs. Land graduated from the University of Washington, with a Bachelor of Music Degree a bachelor of Music Degree majoring in public school mu-sic. She taught high school for many years, gave up teaching and received an accounting certificate from business col-lege. She is presently em-ployed as a secretary and ac-colutant for a local manufac-turing company. Mrs. Land has been a mem-ber of Torrance BPW since 1965, holding offices as record-ing-secretary and treasurer. For 13 years, she has been a member of the Los Angeles than ter of the American member of the Los Angeles c h a pt er of the American Society of Women Accountants, and is also a member of the Los Angeles Credit Women's Club. She grows orchids and is a member of the South Bay Or-chid Society.

Mrs. Land's theme for the year 1969-70 will be "Women's Rights and Responsibilities.

Exchange

lage recently, Mrs. Carl Erikson, retiring president of the Torrance B & PW Club, relinquished the gavel of the presidency to Mrs. O. D. Land, right, who will direct the club through 1969-70. Past Presidents Honored at

Jaycette Membership Tea

Torrance Jaycettes will entertain at their annual membership tea tomorrow afternoon from 2 until 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Chuck Batteles. All Jaycette members and prospective members are invited to attend.

白白白 Honored guests at the affair will be Jaycette past presidents, Mmes. Burton Lamb, Edwin Karlow, John Baldwin, Gordon Jones, Howard Percy, Frederick Hansen, Charles Herren, Louis Mangan.

Others are Mmes. Richard

Florence, Robert Vroman George Brewster, Douglas Hedde, Gerald Russell, Ron Davis, Hal Lindborg, and James Hussey. * * *

A May floral theme will be used in decorating for the tea, according to Mrs. Leon Taylor, chairman.

Jaycette members, presiding at the tea table, will serve sandwiches, dessert, tea, and coffee. Mrs. G. Zappitelli, president, will welcome the guests.

May 2, 1969

