

'Inner City' Involvement To Be Adventists' Goal

A call for personal involvement in the needs of the "inner city" will be made in a special service Saturday to members of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave.

"The concern we show for others must be a first-hand experience," Floyd Stark, the church's leader of lay activities, said in announcing the special program. "It must be by proximity—not by proxy; by person—not by purse."

He added that in an age noted for its "non-involvement," more thought must be given to Christ's words: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me." (Matthew 25:40)

The special program will be given at 10:50 a.m. during the local church's regular weekly report of activities that emphasize Christian concern for others.

Seventh-day Adventists stress help to others. Currently the church is engaged in a large, international program of medical assistance and food distribution to the starving persons in Biafra.

Adventists operate worldwide medical work, which includes more than 300 medical institutions in 190 countries of the world. They also operate local welfare units which last year distributed more than $11 million worth of cash and food to more than 8 million people.

Most state or area headquarters of the church also have special emergency vans for use during floods, tornadoes, riots and other civil or natural disasters.

QUICKER THAN THE EYE . . . Magician Bob French will be featured entertainer Saturday, May 10, at the Hope United Methodist Church Mother-Daughter banquet. A member of the Fellowship of Christian Magicians, French presents Biblical lessons in conjunction with his magical feats.

Women Schedule May Magic Date

"May Magic" is the theme for the Mother-Daughter banquet sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of Hope United Methodist Church, 3405 W. Artesia Blvd. The banquet will be held Saturday, May 10, at 6:30 p.m., in the church Fellowship hall.

Decorations are being made by the Young Mothers' Circle, Mrs. George Johnson of Torrance, chairman. Dinner is being prepared by Mmes. Richard Sanford, John Nold, Pieter Visser, Clinton Beeson.

The program is being arranged by Mrs. J. O. Miller, Mrs. Francis Petersen, and Mrs. Beeson. Featured again this year will be the Hope Church "Singing Walters," Rev. J. O. Miller, Richard Boegler, Larry Pownder, and Francis Petersen. Representing daughters, Angela and Denise Whitcomb will be singing to the mothers, also.

The special attraction of the evening will be the appearance of Bob French, magician. Included in the "Magic Man's" program are such feats as an escape, producing a cane from a silk scarf, pulling rabbits out of nowhere, plus many others.

All women have been invited to attend by Mrs. Richard Sanford, president of the W.S.C.S. Reservations may be made by calling the church office.

The festivities will begin at 10 a.m. with a parade led by the Harbor Christian School Band and the Drum and Bugle Corps. Western and Indian garb will carry out the Old West theme of the event, with prizes awarded for the most original costumes.

The campus King and Queen of Harbor Christian High School will reign over the event.

Highlighting the day's activities will be a rummage sale. Food, games, booths, and contests will also keep guests occupied until 3 p.m. The public is invited.

Directing arrangements are MayBelle Snyder, vice principal, and Mrs. Loraine Pearson.

Rev. Marion Piles, principal, is attending a convention in Decatur, Ill., but will be back in time to join in Round-up Day festivities.

Big Bear Tale Confuses Lad

A small boy was telling his Sunday School teacher that his favorite Bible story was the one about the Cross-Eyed Bear. When questioned further about the tale, the lad replied that he couldn't quite remember how the story went, but he was fond of the hymn with the same title "Gladly The Cross I'd Bear."

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 218th and Manuel Avenue, begin at 11 a.m. All are welcome.

Lodge Installs Rodson 'General Store' Bazaar Features Games, Booths

Lawrence A. Rodson of Torrance, past president of Torrance B'nai B'rith Lodge 2523, has been elected president of Southern California B'nai B'rith Council, the coordinating body for 54 B'nai B'rith Lodges in Southern California.

He was charter president of Torrance Lodge, having served in the first year after formation, and has served council as vice-president and member of the Executive Board.

A Certified Public Accountant, Rodson is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.

He will be installed Saturday in the Escadrille Room, Proud Bird Restaurant, at an Inaugural Ball commemorating the Council's 39th Installation of Officers. Jack J. Spitzer, grand president of District 4 B'nai B'rith, and Arthur Hersh, Council past president, will act as installing officers.

Serving with Rodson for the year 1969-1970 are Selig Solomon, first vice-president; Charles Cummings, second vice-president; Stanley Arnold, third vice-president; Irwin Weinberg, chaplain; Manny Shapiro, executive secretary; Victor Sokolove, recording secretary; David Richman, treasurer; Ben Landers, warden.

Executive Board members include David Forman, Jack Kaiser, Jack Kamerman, Hy Lehrer, Mark Meckler, Perce Sapers, and Marty Solomon.

Led by Tom Drucker, a UCLA doctoral student, the program will answer some questions raised last week, when 75 adults and students swapped opinions on several subjects, ranging from sex to the "society to be." The seminar series is designed to deal with topics related to modern society, the "generation gap," and particularly drug abuse.

At the last session, adults and students compared their moral concepts. Many adults thought that immorality was greatly on the upswing, while many youth thought adults were too prudish. After discussion, many found themselves closer together than they thought.

Drucker pointed out that, generally speaking, youth are more receptive to new ideas and experiments of all kinds, while their parents often are too fearful for youngsters to try new things. He pointed out how this can cause a "generation gap," and felt that discussion could narrow it.

The public is invited. The church is located at 1880 W. 220th St. Further information is available from Mrs. Edward D. Smith.

There will be two Sunday morning worship services, 9:30 and 11 a.m., at the Wayfarers' Chapel, Portuguese Bend, during the months May through October. The early service is a more informal service.

Minister of the Chapel, the Rev. Robert L. Young, will always conduct the 11 a.m. service. However, at the 9:30 a.m. service, two lay leaders, Daniel Nielsen and Eldon Smith, will each lead one service per month with Rev. Young leading the others.

The public is invited to attend all services at the Chapel.

Red Cross volunteers throughout Los Angeles will be honored at a volunteer recognition ceremony at 2 p.m. Sunday at Wilshire Boulevard Temple, 3663 Wilshire Blvd. A reception will follow in the temple's Stalford Hall.

Mrs. John Finucane, Los Angeles Chapter chairman of volunteers, will be assisted by six district and branch chairmen of volunteers in presenting honors. More than 2,000 volunteers have earned recognition.

Area residents being honored include Mmes. C. C. Callahan, James Campbell, George Sterbeck, Aldo Buktenica, Harry Shapiro, and William Goss; Ed Fields, and Arenda Laird, Linda Beal, Debbie Meyers, and Kathy Tanner.

Chaplain To Speak At Church Scott Horton Wins State Scholarship

Rev. and Mrs. Walter M. Stanton and Mrs. Laila Bowen are in San Diego attending the Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Rev. Stanton is pastor of the Central United Methodist Church and Mrs. Bowen is a delegate from the church.

Chaplain James Dayen of the Los Angeles Fire Department will be guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service Sunday in the absence of Rev. Stanton. Glenn Briney will preside.

The mother-daughter "Belles Banquet" will be held Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Guild Hall. The annual event is sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Special entertainment will be provided by the First Baptist Bell Ringers.

Scott P. Horton, 17, a senior at South High, has been awarded a California State Scholarship for academic excellence.

Horton plans to attend El Camino College and continue at San Diego State, to become a marine biologist.

Horton was also named a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship competition.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Horton, 4823 Highgrove Ave.

How can Christian Science help you?

Whatever your needs are, God can help you if you understand His laws. Christian Science can give you this understanding. These laws bring healing. They restore the body and uplift the heart. You may learn how to apply these laws in your own life, and prove them for yourself.

A good way to begin is to come in and read this week's Bible Lesson in the Christian Science Reading Room. It is there for you to use.
