Outstanding Employees Recognized

Thirteen county health department employees have been awarded "Outstanding" certificates before the Public Health Advisory Commission, County Health Officer Dr. Gerald A. Heidbreder reported today. The group includes three Torrance residents. They are Dallas Candy, head, administrative services, of 20812 New Hampshire Ave.; Tunis S. Cordill Jr., senior medical social worker, of 4122-A Emerald St.; and Norman J. Michiels, chief sanitarian, of 2229 W. 229th Place.

Michigan Band Sets Concert

The University of Michigan Symphony Band, currently on a nationwide tour, will present a concert Tuesday, May 13, in the El Camino College auditorium.

Under the direction of William D. Revelli, the Michigan band has received wide acclaim from audiences at home and abroad and is generally considered one of the world's finest concert bands.

The band was selected to represent the United States in the Soviet Union and the Near East as a part of our Cultural Exchange Program.

Tickets for the May 13 concert are on sale in the El Camino College bookstore and will also be sold at the auditorium box office the evening of the program.

Films Planned

Three children's films will be shown Saturday at the Carson Library, 22102 S. Main St., from 10:30 to 11:15 a.m. The films are "Niok," "The Bicycle," and "The Camel Who Took a Walk." There is no admission charge.
