Donna Wilson To Be June Bride

Miss Donna Maureen Wilson will become the bride of Dan Hanson on June 20 in a ceremony at the Crenshaw Christian Church. The announcement of their daughter's engagement and approaching marriage is made by Dr. and Mrs. Donald E. Wilson, 17022 Kornblum Ave.

Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hanson, also of Torrance.

Both Miss Wilson and her fiancé were members of the North High graduating class of 1968. At North, Miss Wilson was Basketball Princess in 1966 and Homecoming Queen in 1967.

Mr. Hanson, now on a scholarship at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, distinguished himself in sports at North High, winning the title of "Outstanding Athlete" and also was named "Outstanding Teenager" of the South Bay.

Dr. Wilson, a Torrance city councilman and director of teacher education at USC, is a minister of the Christian Church and will officiate at his daughter's wedding.

Mrs. John Heaston, 17002 Kornblum entertained at a miscellaneous bridal shower Tuesday evening honoring the bride-elect. Pink roses and white wedding bells were used in decorating. Several shower games were played followed by the opening of gifts. The hostess served refreshments.

Attending the shower were Mmes Donald Wilson, Grace Dempster, Chiz Hara, Muriel Brandt, Ardis Church, Vera Romo, Lavaughn Ogren, Pat Tyrell; and Misses Regina Walsh, Debra Heaston and Joanna Brandt.

Tolson-Starkey Vows

In a candlelight ceremony at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church at seven o'clock on April 17, Miss Cynthia Lee Tolson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson of Torrance, recited marriage vows with Ernest C. Starkey. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Starkey of Hermosa Beach, formerly of Wembley, England.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath gown of Chantilly lace over satin. It was fashioned with a bateau neckline, long sleeves and a chapel train, sprinkled with seed pearls. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a headpiece of organza roses and her bouquet was of white gladioli and stephanotis.

Her attendants, in graduating shades of pink dotted swiss and carrying pink and white nosegays, were Misses Lori Ann Witt, maid of honor; Carol Starkey, Carol Tolson and Mrs. Leslie Keiser, bridesmaids. Susan Tolson was flower girl.

Gary Bean performed the best man duties and ushers were Dale Blain, Tom James and Bob Tolson. Cathy Sinimon was at the guest book.

The Rev. Hugh Percy officiated at the marriage which was followed by a church reception.

The honeymoon was spent at Lake Arrowhead and the couple's first home is in Torrance.

The bride is a secretary in purchasing for the Torrance schools. Her husband is employed by Norair.
