

Prepare for Flower Show

Riviera Garden Club has set the date of May 20 for its annual Flower Show and members are busy gleaning all the information available on flower arranging. Following the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Atha, a workshop was conducted by Mrs. William Donnelly, a flower show judge. Three members, intent upon producing winners, are from left, Mmes Willett Rowlands, vice president; Anthony Maggio, Flower Show chairman; and Lyn Sims, president. (Press-Herald Photo)

Kiwis Will Install At Princess Louise Event

Mrs. Winthrop B. Cody of the Palos Verdes Peninsula will be installed as president of the South Bay Kiwi Club, former American Airlines stewardesses, on Tuesday, May 13.

Two Parties Fete Scott On Birthday

"Pin the Mask on Batman" was one of the game highlights of the seventh birthday party for Scott Wolverton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wolverton on Opal Street. Friends joining Scott for the luncheon festivities, with the Batman theme, were Eric Cederloff, Philip Horne, Yanick Herrouin, Billy Utter, Scott and Michael Williams, and Scott's brother, Gary. Unable to attend was Scott Brossmer.

The family dinner party held on April 27 was attended by grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wolverton, Miss Lorna King, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolverton, Karin, Judy and Bruce, Roger Wolverton, and Gary Wolverton.

Unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Serl, Brian, Janell and Gretchen, of Ontario.

The Kiwis are a social and philanthropic organization and are busy planning activities for the coming year. Others who will serve with Mrs. Cody include: Mmes. R. H. Douglas, Manhattan Beach, vice-president; Scheeter, Manhattan Beach, ways and means chairman; Marty F. Tynan, Palos Verdes Estates, treasurer; Donald A. Bromley, Torrance, membership chairman; Dwayne McIlroy, Manhattan Beach, recording secretary; Dennis Fitzpatrick, Palos Verdes Peninsula, public relations chairman and William D. Davis Jr. Rolling Hills Estates, historian.

The installation will be conducted by outgoing board members who will be under the direction of Mrs. Earl W. Francis, Palos Verdes Peninsula, retiring president.

Alpha Chi Alumnae To Install Tonight

South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Chi Omega will hold the installation of new officers this evening at 8 p.m. at the Manhattan Beach home of Mrs. Auten F. Bush.

Mrs. Bush, a founding member of the South Bay Alumnae Club, will conduct the installation ceremony. Her co-hostess will be Mrs. Lester G. Heilman of Hermosa Beach.

Officers to be installed for the coming year are Mmes. F. Edward Chappellear, president; James Gamble, first vice-president; Ralph H. Brubaker, second vice-president; Neal C. Patterson, recording secretary; Bonnie Grider, corresponding secretary; Donald Jarman, treasurer; Daryl Creighton, historian and press chairman; Arthur Diott, Panhellenic delegate; and Dale VandenBrink, Southern California executive board representative.

Completes Duty

Al Gately, who recently completed three years service with the United States Navy, has returned to Torrance and is at home with his mother, Mrs. Muriel Gately, 1408 Acacia. Al, a graduate of Loyola University, served his three years in communications stationed in Japan.

Weekend Here

Mike Derouin, who had been attending a ski show in New York City, spent the weekend here with his mother, Mrs. Gil Derouin before going on to San Francisco for a ski show there.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour, Jr., 1610 Amapola, have returned from a ten day vacation trip. They drove to Los Gatos, where they were guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Moyer for several days. They then went to Clear Lake to spend three days with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Waldeck, formerly of Torrance, who have now retired and are living in a mobile home at Clear Lake.

In Memoriam Garden Club Places Plaque

In memory of the late Mrs. Anna Makowski, the Los Colinas Garden Club placed a bronze plaque in the Los Arboles Park in ceremonies conducted by Rev. John K. Foley of St. Lawrence Martyr Church on April 11.

Mrs. Makowski, who made her home with her family in Palos Verdes, was an active member of Los Colinas. She was also a member of the Women's Council of the St. Lawrence Martyr Church.

Mrs. Makowski also served as a den mother and taught flower arranging and horticulture to the Girls Scouts.

As a special tribute at the ceremonies, Girl Scout Troop 214 placed flowers on the plaque.
