

Children Benefit When Horses Run

Mothers
Of Twins

Visiting the clubhouse at Hollywood Park where their guests will be seated on May 20, are from left, Mrs. Leroy Cramer and Mrs. W. R. Campbell of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club. Each year the proceeds from their Day at the Races is given by the Mothers of Twins to some institution helping children. This year, proceeds will go to the Intercommunity Home for Exceptional Children in Long Beach.

Two 'Day at Races' May 16---May 20

Volunteers for Children at the Harbor General Hospital and the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club, whose major goal is help for children, will each sponsor a "Day at the Races" to swell their funds to carry out their projects.

The Volunteers for Children will have their day at Hollywood Park on Friday, May 16. Money raised will be used to purchase more equipment for the pediatric ward at the hospital. Last year, the Volunteers were able to provide equipment which is credited with saving the lives of 35 premature babies. Post time on May 16 is 1 p.m.

The Intercommunity Home for Exceptional Children in Long Beach will be the recipient of the proceeds from the Mothers of Twins "Day at the Races" on May 20. Mrs. W. R. Campbell chairman, announces that a race will be named for the Mothers of Twins and two representatives will go to the winner's circle to be photographed. Post time on May 20 is 1:45 p.m. Mrs. Leroy Cramer of Torrance, co-chairman, may be called for tickets.

Volunteers
For Children

In search of "hot tips," these Volunteers for Children and the hospital's chief of volunteer services play up to a "jockey" hoping to get a headstart for their "Day at the Races" Friday at Hollywood Park. They are from left, Mrs. Michael Sims, Frank Crase, volunteer chief, Mmes. Andrew Dallengorfer and Kenneth Geer. Tickets may be secured from any of these people or at the hospital.

Future Bride

Boyko - Pelle

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Boyko, 16702 Cerise Ave., announce the engagement of their daughter, Dallas Rose, to Robert Pelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Pelle, 23630 Pennsylvania Ave., Torrance.

The wedding will take place in April, 1970.

The future bride was graduated from North High School and is attending El Camino College.

Her fiancé, a graduate of South High School, attended El Camino College prior to enlisting in the United States Army. He is now serving his tour of duty in Vietnam.

DALLAS BOYKO

Newlywed John Cotters To Reside in Germany

Leaving soon for their new assignments in Germany will be newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cotter, who were married here April 18 and spent their honeymoon on a cross-country trip back to Keesler Air Force Base in Biloxi, Miss. Mrs. Cotter is the former Renay Cathy Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Barnes, 2213 W. 177th St., Torrance. Mr. Cotter is the son of Mrs. Marjorie Cotter of Whittier.

The bride is serving with the United States Air Force and her husband with the Army.

For her wedding, which was solemnized at 8 a.m. on April 18 at the Los Angeles Temple of Latter Day Saints, the bride wore an empire gown of white chiffon detailed with three-tiered ruffled puff sleeves. Her bouquet was three long stemmed white roses and baby breath.

Her attendants, in green floral chiffon, were Mrs. Kathy Murton, matron of honor; Mrs. Toni Barnes and Miss Pam Holmes, bridesmaids. Flower girls were Michelle Cotter and Melia Fely.

Larry Haycock stood as best man and ushers were Jim Cotter, Bruce Robbins, Mike Barnes, Val Reynolds, Viatogi Fely and Eddie O'Day. Mrs. Rae Eystone was soloist.

In the evening, 300 guests greeted the bridal couple at a reception at the Torrance Ward, 2200 Artesia Blvd.

The bride is a graduate of North High and El Camino College. Her husband, a graduate of Sierra High in Whittier, attended Brigham Young University for one year, prior to entering the service.

MRS. JOHN COTTER

Party Honors Dean Sears On Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Backlund entertained at a surprise birthday dinner party last Sunday at their Miraleste home honoring Mrs. Backlund's father, Dean L. Sears.

Family members present for the celebration were Mrs. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clayton and son, Ricky, Lt. and Mrs. R. W. Hightower and daughter, Kristin and Jennifer of Coronado; Bobby and Marty Klink and Dean Backlund.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brooks and Mrs. Paul Loranger.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

C-4 PRESS-HERALD

MAY 14, 1969

Foursome Returns From Texas, Louisiana Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Landerville, 1121 Cranbrook Ave. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lafond of Long Beach have returned from a three weeks vacation trip to Texas and Louisiana.

Enroute to Texas, they stopped at the Carlsbad Caverns and then to Lubbock, Tex. where they were guests of the Landervilles' daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Patterson and their new son, Matthew, who was born April 13. Mrs. Patterson is the former Denise Landerville.

While in Texas, they visited the LBJ ranch at Johnson City and the astrodomo at Houston.

Arriving in New Orleans, they spent a week with the Lafonds' daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powell and their new son, Steven. They visited the historic spots of New Orleans before going to Mer Rouge to visit Mr. and Mrs. Gail Carter, formerly of Torrance. The foursome also toured Shreveport, La. and Dallas, Tex., returning to Lubbock for a few days with the Pattersons before beginning their homeward trip.

A Fantasy
In Creative
Headdress

Presenting their choices in the various categories of competition at the Torrance Woman's Club's annual Headdress Fantasy, are the two judges, from left, Mmes. Gene Myers and Nadine Becking, standing at the back of the couch. The winners are, from left, Mrs. Dale Bliven, sweepstakes winner, wearing her version of "Wash Day Blues"; Mrs. Clayton Lilley, first in the 'most beautiful' division, wearing Liberace's Candabra; Mrs. Fred Wilkes, first in the nobby division, with a headgear entitled "Hole in One"; and Mrs. Edward Disbrow, first in the "most comical" competition, depicting a "Groovy Grandma" headdress. (Press-Herald Photo)

Dianas' Installation Set For May 17

Mrs. Philip MacBride has been elected president of the Redondo Beach Dianas for the year 1969-1970. Born in Los Angeles, she attended Dorsey High School and the University of California at Berkeley. Her husband is a fireman for Los Angeles City. They have two children, Tim, 11, and Lisa, 8.

Mrs. MacBride has been a member of the Dianas since 1963 and has been active as press chairman, second vice president (membership), Marina District International Affairs chairman, and this past year has served as first vice president, dean of chairmen.

Mrs. MacBride will be assisted this coming year by Mmes. Albert Rolstead, Leon Hallman, Barry Hildebrand, vice presidents; George Easton, secretary; Roscoe Davis, treasurer; Norman Merritt, programs; Gordon Watt, press, and Dino Ruffoni, parliamentarian.

Installation will be held in the home of Mrs. Daisy Geery Jack at a luncheon on May 17. The installing officer will be Mrs. Raymond Williams. Chairman of the event is Mrs. Paul Mitchell.

MRS. PHILLIP MacBRIDE
Diana President
(Portrait by Seeman)