

Auditions Slated for 'Carnival'

Singers and dancers with Broadway ambition are invited to audition for the Long Beach Civic Light Opera production of "Carnival" Saturday, May 17, and Sunday, May 18, at the CLO rehearsal hall, 518 E. Fourth St., Long Beach.

Dancers will do their thing Saturday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Singers are requested to bring their own music on Sunday between 1 and 7:30 p.m.

All roles are for non-union performers and will be cast from these auditions. Additional information may be obtained by calling 432-7926.

Eight performances of "Carnival" will be presented in the concert hall of Long Beach Municipal Auditorium beginning July 10.

Youth Band To Play in Las Vegas

Los Caballeros Youth Band will journey to Las Vegas for the annual "Heldorado Days" festivities, Saturday and Sunday.

"Cabbsies" are under the direction of Bob Cotton with Miss Pat Pearman wielding the baton.

The band's last appearance was in the Gardena Loyalty Day Parade in which they were awarded third place.

President Bob Lake said, "Las Vegas is the one big trip the band will take this year, and all members are looking forward to having a wonderful time."

Last year, the band traveled to Sacramento and played a concert at Cal-Expo. Los Caballeros is the official band of the city of Carson.

Visitation Day Set at Harbor

More than 400 high school students from six local high schools, will be visiting Los Angeles Harbor College Tuesday, May 20, for Technical Education, Home Economics and Nursing Day.

Purpose of the day is to acquaint the students with the classes that Harbor College offers in each field.

The high schoolers will arrive at 9:30 a.m. by school bus and stay until 11:30 a.m., one-third of them going to each specialty.

Home economics students will have a discussion and display in Seahawk Center before touring the home-economics department.

Technical students will visit all the Harbor shops and then spend additional time in the shop they are most interested in.

Nursing students will be taken to Harbor General Hospital where they will be shown details of the life of a nursing student.

High schools participating in the program are San Pedro, Gardena, Banning, Washington, Carson and Narbonne. Arrangements were made by F. James Clines, coordinator of vocational education at Harbor.

Reconstruction Of Street Set

Improvement of a long stretch of Lomita Boulevard in Wilmington at a cost of nearly $300,000 was disclosed today by the Board of Public Works in advertising for construction bids.

District Councilman John S. Gibson Jr. said the plans call for widening and reconstructing Lomita Boulevard from Banning Boulevard to Gulf Avenue.
