Air Force Wives Will Present Dance Benefit

President Mrs. Bobby Meyer has announced that, according to its custom, the Air Force Officers' Wives' Club of Los Angeles will again hold a benefit event with proceeds to go to the Air Force Village Foundation.

The foundation is a non-profit organization established in 1964 for the purpose of building the Air Force Village, a housing complex to provide living facilities primarily for widows of Air Force officers. Ground-breaking for the village, located in San Antonio, Tex., was scheduled for May 1, after five years of fund raising around the world by Officers' Wives' Clubs and other organizations.

Formal evening gowns and mess dress uniforms are the prescribed attire for May 24 for "La Noche de Fiesta," a dinner dance with a Spanish flavor. Under the direction of Mrs. Daniel E. Riley, honorary chairman, the gala evening will get under way at 6:30 p.m. with a no-host cocktail hour at the Commissioners' Mess at Long Beach Naval Station (Terminal Island).

This will be followed by an elegant seated dinner including delicacies such as Gazpacho, Milanesa Espanol, Aurroz Volenciano, and Calavasa ala Greco.

In keeping with the theme, the entertainment will feature music with a Spanish accent and flamenco dancers.

Chairman for this festive occasion is Mrs. E. A. Meyer, and working with her as heads of committees are Mmes. James E. Cobb, decorations; Frank R. Haggerty, prizes; D. W. Pearsall, reservations; and Roger H. Lengnick, publicity.
