

El Camino Will Host Scout Show

More than 15,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers will join with Scouts from throughout Los Angeles to participate in the 1969 Scout-O-Rama set for Saturday, Leslie N. Shaw, general chairman, said today.

Open to the general public, the event will take place at three locations with local units participating at El Camino College from noon to 9 p.m. Purpose of the Scout-O-Rama, with the theme "A Country Fair," is to give the boys an opportunity to display skills, see other boys in action, broaden friendships, stimulate pride and provide activities.

Proceeds from the program will go to help provide funds for individual Scout units as well as add funds to the camping facility budget of the Los Angeles Area Council which is presenting the Scout-O-Rama.

EIGHT SHOWS will be provided at the event including one which will feature more than 650 booths displaying action-filled adventure of Scouting. Other activities include an Indian village, challenge arena, little theater, pioneering area and country fair kitchen.

Some of these activities will include a presentation of Indian life, friendly competition between Scouts, special demonstrations and shows, and a display of pioneering projects built by the Scouts.

AT THE "Country Fair" kitchen, spectators will have an opportunity to see and taste various types of cooking. The dishes will be prepared by Boy Scout troops and Explorer posts. At the end of the program, an individual participation award will be given to each Scout who took part in the Scout-O-Rama as well as unit awards. The unit award will be given on the basis of cleanliness of booth or area the unit had, whether or not the unit started its program on time, amount of activity, and the general audience appeal in the booth or area. Tickets to the 1969 Scout-O-Rama are now on sale and will continue through June 7.

Cost is $1 each and may be purchased from any Scout. The Scouts, through ticket sales, will have a chance to earn commissions and prizes.

License Fee Due For Dogs

Dog license fees for fiscal 1969-70 will become due July 1 in Carson, Lomita, and adjacent unincorporated areas of the county, Manley F. Linville, director of the county Department of Animal Regulation, has announced.

The county serves as the licensing agency for the city of Carson and Lomita.

All dogs four months of age and older must be licensed. The fee is $4 per dog and each application must be accompanied by a valid rabies vaccination certificate.

Applications may be obtained at the county's health centers, fire stations, and sheriff's stations in the area, as well as at the Lomita City Hall, 25332 Narbonne Ave., and the Animal Control Center No. 3, 216 W. Victoria St., Gardena (Carson), from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A deputy from the Department of Animal Regulation will visit the Lomita City Hall each Saturday from July 5 through Aug. 2 from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Art Work On Display In Gardena

An exhibit of kindergarten art will be on display through June 19 at the area administrative offices of the Harbor elementary schools, 1208 Magnolia Ave., Gardena.

Mrs. Joan Hauser, art instructional advisor for Harbor area elementary schools, said that this is the last planned exhibit of Children's art work.

The kindergarten art features murals created by whole classes, plus many individual works, from 20 area schools.

The displays may be seen by the public from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday until June 19.
